The Ocala Breeders' Sales Co. winter mixed sale lost ground in several important statistical categories during its three-day run, Jan. 16-18, in Central Florida. The number sold dropped 7.7%, from 531 last year to 490. The gross declined 27.2%, from $6,921,100 to $5,038,600. And the average fell 21.1%, from $13,035 to $10,283.

The median price of $5,500 was the same as last year's comparable figure. In addition, the buy-back/no bid rate dropped from 43.9% in 2006 to 38.4%, indicating greater consignor satisfaction with prices.

"Last year, at the top, we had some very high-priced horses, including a $260,000 mare, and those type of horses weren't here in this sale," said OBS general manager and director of sales Tom Ventura, explaining that the drop in quality contributed to the setback in average.

"It's the same old thing," he continued. "The broodmare prospects and the young mares in foal to popular stallions are doing fine, but they're not (doing fine) if they're an older mare or a mare that's not in foal to a popular sire. And it's still competitive for the short yearlings that are physically attractive with some sire power in their pedigrees."

A Posse yearling colt was the most expensive horse sold, bringing $95,000 from Josham Farms, agent. Bred by New Dawn Stud in New York, the chestnut yearling was consigned by Brent and Crystal Fernung's Journeyman Bloodstock, agent.

The colt is the third foal out of the winning 11-year-old Native Prospector mare Navarro Rose, who finished second in the Pike Place Dancer Handicap and the Floral Fiesta Stakes in California in 2000. Navarro Rose is a half-sister to added-money winner Dayla and to stakes producer and winner Sunday's Child.

Journeyman Bloodstock also consigned the second- and third-highest-priced horses: Kabeeb, a Labeeb mare who sold for $90,000 while in foal to Bandini, and a Malibu Moon—Jamie's Sunshine colt that brought $75,000. Frank Stronach's Adena Springs operation purchased Kabeeb, an 8-year-old Canadian stakes winner out of the winning Carson City mare Kalene. Pick Six Thoroughbreds bought the Malibu Moon colt, whose dam is a half-sister to grade I winner Mademoiselle Forli and to stakes producers Coastal Sunshine and Love and Stitches.
