HOLLENDORFER GETS 7,000TH CAREER WIN

By Tom LaMarra

Hall of Fame trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, 69, won his 7,000th race when Kiss N Scat, whom he co-owns with Steve Taub, Steve Melen, and George Todaro, won the first race at Golden Gate Fields Nov. 26. Hollendorfer ranks third on the all-time list of trainers by wins behind the late Dale Baird and Steve Asmussen.

Kiss N Scat, a 2-year-old Scat Daddy filly, easily captured the entry-level one-mile allowance event by 13 lengths under jockey Ricardo Gonzalez and paid $2.20 to win as the heavy favorite.

"I'm very grateful to be able to do something like this," Hollendorfer said. "I've had a lot of good people help me. I want to thank the horses, the owners, and the help I've had. All of my staff, including (my wife) Janet, have done such a good job. They're the people who do most of the work."

Hollendorfer trains the undefeated Songbird, winner of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (gr. I) and probable 2015 champion 2-year-old filly. BH

New Jersey-bred Green Gratto had placed in graded stakes in New York this year, but Nov. 26 he broke through with a win in the Fall Highweight Handicap at Aqueduct

GREEN GRATTO STUNS FALL HIGHWEIGHT

By Evan Hammonds

Green Gratto, the longest-priced horse on the board at 24-1, took six accomplished sprinters gate to finish in Aqueduct's traditional Thanksgiving Day feature, the Fall Highweight Handicap (gr. III). The New Jersey-bred son of Here's Zealous got the six furlongs in 1:09.95 after setting fractions of :22.29 and :44.71 under Kendrick Carmouche.

Rubber-legged late, Green Gratto held off the late surge of multiple grade I winner Palace to win by a head and earn his first stakes victory. Fabulous Kid rallied outside for third.

Bred by Kaz Hill Farm, Green Gratto is trained by Gaston Grant and owned by Grant and Anthony Grant. The 5-year-old horse finished second in the Carter Handicap (gr. I) and third in the Tom Fool Handicap (gr. III) earlier this year.

The race was likely the final run for a pair of stellar New York-breds: Palace will soon join the stallion roster at Spendthrift Farm, and four-time grade II winner La Verdad will likely become a broodmare for owner Sheila Rosenblum. BH

HARD NOT TO LIKE SEEKS FOURTH GRADE I Hard Not to Like has been quite the traveler in her four-year career, racing at eight different racetracks and winning at five, and the gray mare will look to add another to her list in the Nov. 29 Matriarch (gr. IT).

THE PIZZA MAN SCORES IN TURF CUP

By Lenny Shulman

Let loose approaching the final turn, Midwest Thoroughbreds' homebred The Pizza Man launched a devastating run and though eight-wide in the lane, inhaled the competition for an easy score in Del Mar's $250,000 Hollywood Turf Cup Stakes (gr. IIT) Nov. 26

The even-money favorite, The Pizza Man (English Channel—I Can Fan Fan, by Lear Fan) avenged his third-place finish in last year's race as well as his fifth in the Breeders' Cup Turf (gr. IT) at Keeneland.

Running on firm ground for the first time in his last five races, the Illinois-bred 6-year-old gelding overcame soft fractions while racing near the back of the pack. Class Leader and Southern Freedom ran the first six furlongs in 1:17.28, and The Pizza Man hit the wire after 12 in 2:31.75.

Local California runner Big John B settled for second. Power Foot claimed the show spot. The Pizza Man, winner of this season's Arlington Million (gr. IT), won for the fourth time in six 2015 starts. BH

AHH CHOCOLATE CAPTURES FALLS CITY

By Tom LaMarra

Stoneway Farm's Ahh Chocolate continued to show her fondness for the Churchill Downs dirt with a comfortable victory in the Falls City Handicap (gr. II) Nov. 26. It was the first stakes win for the 3-year-old Candy Ride filly trained by Neil Howard.

The complexion of the Falls City changed dramatically a few hours beforehand when Frivolous, last year's winner, was scratched because of a tendon injury. She has been retired and will be bred in 2016, according to trainer Victoria Oliver.

In her last start Ahh Chocolate finished second in the one-mile Chiliukki Stakes (gr. II) at Churchill, and in September she won a second-level allowance race at the Kentucky track. In her only other start at the 1 1/8-mile Falls City distance, Ahh Chocolate finished third in Pimlico's Black-Eyed Susan Stakes (gr. II) in May.

Theogony was second and Call Pat third in the Falls City. Favored Birdatthewire checked in fourth. BH

A Shamardal colt bought by Darley's John Ferguson and consigned by Rossenarra Stud of Ireland topped Day 3 of the Tattersalls December foal sale

ACTIVE TRADING FOR TATTERSALLS DAY 3

By Carl Evans

Paul Thorman of England's Trickle-down Stud, one of the sagest men in the world of weanlings, provided a telling summary of trade as the Tattersalls December foal sale completed its Nov. 26 session.

"Last year if a horse had a hole in it, you dropped down a level to get started; this year you won't get started," said Thorman. His comments came as the clearance rate fell again—a theme at Ireland's recent Goffs foal sale—yet the average rose. Demand for the good ones is strong, but the market is selective.

Day 3 proof was the 14 foals that brought 100,000 guineas ($149,630) or more compared with five last year. The day's session-topper, a Shamardal colt bought by Darley's John Ferguson for 240,000 guineas ($359,112), aided a 4% increase in gross to 8,576,000 guineas ($12,832,268), even though 17 more horses were offered. The average rose 5% at 36,650 guineas ($54,839) but clearance fell 7% to 79%.

The Nov. 27 session is the strongest. Will end users and pinhookers up their game to reverse the declining buy-back rate? BH

GROUP I WINS KEEP COMING FOR WALLER

By Myra Lewyn

Less than four months into Australia's 2015-16 racing season, 10 of the first 33 of Australia's 72 group I races have been won by nine horses trained by Sydney-based Chris Waller.

Arriving in Sydney from New Zealand in 2000, Waller has been Australia's champion trainer by group I wins in recent years, including a record 14 with 13 individual runners for the 2014-15 season. He appears poised to surpass that mark.

Overall, Waller has won 57 group I races, and in October bolstered his record by landing one of Australia's top four races—Melbourne Cup, Caulfield Cup, W.S. Cox Plate, and Golden Slipper—for the first time when the Street Cry filly Winx smashed the Moonee Valley course record in the Cox Plate.

A FEW QUESTIONS WITH DAN METZGER

By Tom LaMarra

ANNE M. EBERHARDT

Dan Metzger is president of the Lexington-based Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association, which is part owner of Blood-Horse

Today's MarketWatch interview is with Dan Metzger, president of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association, who discusses major issues currently impacting owners and breeders.

Blood-Horse Daily: What role could owners and breeders play in improving the economics of the business?

Dan Metzger: Thoroughbred owners and breeders invest billions of dollars in our sport, yet they face a tenuous economic model that does not project financial growth and a reasonable return on investment. Part of this is due to an over-reliance on pari-mutuel betting as the primary revenue stream to fund purses. While expanded gaming has enhanced purses in a number of regions, most of us recognize this source of revenue remains dangerously exposed, as demonstrated by casino-based purse reductions in Ontario, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia.

Other sports have diversified and expanded their revenue sources over the last 50 years, and as a result they have become very successful. Owners and breeders must become much more involved in the development of additional revenue sources to supplement the current purse structure, which in its current form is disproportionate to the costs of buying and training Thoroughbreds. In addition, the rising costs of stud fees and high number of mares bred per stallion are contributing factors affecting the commercial sales market.

BHD: What are some of the structural issues that hinder the industry's growth?

DM: Our sport lacks a clearly defined expansion strategy, not only for the present but for future generations as well. This is a tremendous challenge. Our existing governance structure—or lack thereof—does not allow us to set a strategic direction. The future sustainability of our industry is at risk, as seen in recent years with racetracks closing, declining attendance, and our inability to market Thoroughbred racing to a new generation of potential owners and fans.

The competition for the sports and entertainment dollar is an enormous challenge in the current climate, and the negative media perception directly influences our economic issues. For those of us within the industry, we clearly understand our assets, as well as our liabilities, but unfortunately the non-racing media coverage has often been based on perception and not always reality. We need more racehorse owners in the sport as well as an increased fan base, but without significant changes in these areas, our challenges will be much more daunting.

BHD: How important is uniformity in regulation and what must be done to achieve it?

DM: Owners want a level playing field, specifically through uniformity in every racing jurisdiction with a centralized approach toward one set of medication rules. They want a stringent set of rules with appropriate penalties for the wrongdoers and the most robust and effective drug testing in the world, both pre- and post-race. The uncertainty of our drug policies and practices hampers sustainable growth for the sport, and continued fragmentation will only lead to a further decline in the business of racing. We must address these issues with a collaborative approach in order to maximize the unique and limitless opportunities presented to us by the Thoroughbred. BH
