HALF OURS' DECEMBER DOUBLE-DOUBLE

By Tom Hall

Half Ours has been Santa Claus to Clear Creek Stud, delivering four new stakes winners for the holidays. Of Half Ours' five new 2015 stakes winners, four arrived in December. New Year's Eve at Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots, his juvenile offspring won both Louisiana Futurity races. Smittys Cougar trounced her rivals by 9 3/4 lengths in the filly division an hour before Half Cajun took the male counterpart by 4 1/2.

Earlier in the month the pride of Clear Creek scored another Fair Grounds stakes double: On Louisiana Champions Day his 4-year-old daughter Platinum Lady won the Ladies Sprint Stakes and 3-year-old son Jockamo's Song took the Sprint Stakes.

Half Ours, a gray 14 year-old son of Unbridled's Song—Zing, by Storm Cat, has sired 12 stakes winners. Since first appearing on the Louisiana sire list in 2011 at No. 26, he has risen steadily to rank among the top 10 every year. In 2015 he was Louisiana's leading sire with $3,013,717 in earnings and six stakes winners. BH

NYRA OFFERS INCENTIVES FOR JUVENILES

By Tom LaMarra

The New York Racing Association will increase purses for some 2-year-old maiden races this spring offering financial incentives to owners and bonuses for New York-bred runners in juvenile maiden races.

In a schedule announced Jan. 1, NYRA will offer six $100,000 maiden races from April 20-May 19, two at Aqueduct Racetrack and four at Belmont Park, as "trials" for the Astoria Stakes for 2-year-old fillies and Tremont Stakes for 2-year-olds later in the spring at Belmont. The standard purse for maiden special weight races is $75,000, meaning another $150,000 will be available in the six trials.

Winners will earn 50% of the purse, and all runners get a check.

The New York-bred bonuses apply to all open or state-bred 2-year-old maiden special weight events for Aqueduct and Belmont. Owners will receive $9,000 for a win, $4,500 for second, and $2,500 for third. Trainers would get a $4,000 bonus for first, $3,000 for second, and $2,000 for third.

The New York Breeding Fund will contribute $200,000 to help pay the $25,000 in total awards available for each race. BH

BLUEGRASS CAT THRIVING IN CALIFORNIA

By Eric Mitchell

Bluegrass Cat arrived in California with momentum, having topped the New York state sire list in 2013 and possessing enough quality runners to finish third among Golden State sires for 2014.

Ballena Vista Farm's grade I-winning son of Storm Cat is back on top in 2015 with Northern Hemisphere progeny earnings of $5,563,497. Bluegrass Cat is also the state's leading sire by number of winners (143), black-type stakes winners (7), stakes wins (11), and graded stakes winners (two). He is one of five active California stallions with a grade I winner this year, a list that includes Affirmative, Eddington, Square Eddie, and Street Hero. Bluegrass Cat's grade I winner Linda Linda (CHI) won the Alberto Solari Magnasco in Chile in October.

Numbers were on Bluegrass Cat's side in 2015 with 249 runners, compared with the late Tribal Rule who was next closest with 168. Bluegrass Cat covered 70 mares this year versus a book of 58 he had his last

American Pharoah sets single-season earnings record in 2015

RECORDS FOR AMERICAN PHAROAH, CASTELLANO

By Frank Angst

With its year-round format, horse racing offers few opportunities to look back, but Jan. 1 is one of those as Equibase.com posts the final season statistics for the top horses, jockeys, trainers, and owners in searchable categories such as earnings and wins.

On the equine side—newsflash—American

Pharoah dominated. The Triple Crown winner established a single-season earnings record while his owner Zayat Stables finished 2015 as leader by earnings. American Pharoah won seven graded races and earned $8,288,800, breaking the previous single-season record set in 2004 by dual-classic winner Smarty Jones when he earned $7,563,535 (which included a $5 million bonus).

Trainer Todd Pletcher and jockey Javier Castellano again finished on top (for the sixth consecutive and third consecutive year, respectively). At

Nyquist	$1,613,600

$28,120,767 in purse earnings, Castellano broke his own single-season record set in 2013 to lead the annual North American leading jockeys' list. Castellano also led all other riders in wins in 2015, a feat he also accomplished in 2013. BH

DAIWA MAJOR TOP 2-YEAR-OLD SIRE

By Naohiro Goda

At the conclusion of the 2015 Japan Racing Association season Dec. 27, a new name occupied the top of the leading 2-year-old sire list.

Daiwa Major, by Sunday Silence, ended the reign of Deep Impact, who had held the title since 2010, the year his first crop reached racing age. Daiwa Major became 2015's leading juvenile sire by both number of winners and earnings.

A winner of five grade I events, including back-to-back editions of the Mile Championship (Jpn-I), Daiwa Major went to stud at Shadai Stallion Station in 2008, a year later than Deep Impact. He was the top first-season sire in 2011 and has been ranked among the top 10 on the 2-year-old sire list every year since.

In 2015 Daiwa Major, who finished second in his only start at 2, had 39 2-year-old winners, four more than Deep Impact. His winners include Major Emblem, the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies (Jpn-I) victor, and Ball Lightning, winner of the Keio Hai Nisai Stakes (Jpn-II).

His 2-year-olds earned ¥668,435,500 ($5.54 million), ¥66,155,500 ($548,440) more than Deep Impact's juveniles. BH

King Kranz breaking his maiden in the Lost In The Fog Stakes

KING KRANZ IS A MAIDEN NO MORE

By Tom LaMarra

Grade II-placed but a maiden after five starts, Zayat Stables' King Kranz finally got his elusive first win in the first 3-year-old stakes of 2016, the Lost In The Fog Stakes at Aqueduct Racetrack Jan. 1.

Blinkered for the first time, King Kranz, by 2015 leading second-crop sire Munnings, sat just off front-running Zen Papa, took over in the final sixteenth and held off Jan's Reserve to win the six-furlong event in 1:11.84 on a fast track.

Trained by John Terranova and ridden by Cornelio Velasquez, King Kranz, a $95,000 Ocala Breeders' Sales Co. March 2-year-old purchase was beaten only three-quarters of a length by undefeated Mohaymen in his second start and finished second to Annual Report as the favorite in Belmont Park's Futurity Stakes (gr. II).

He subsequently ran third in the James F. Lewis III Stakes at Laurel Park. Returned to maiden company, he fell a neck short of Condo King, who scratched from the Lost In The Fog to run in Aqueduct's Jan. 2 Jerome Stakes (gr. III). BH

HANDICAPPING PREVIEW

with Frank Angst

SEEING VALUE IN OLD HAT EXACTA PLAYS

Trainer Stanley Gold has returned Jacks or Better Farm's homebred Ballet Diva to sprinting following the Hear No Evil filly's failed try at two turns. The newly turned 3-year-old looks poised for a top effort Jan. 2 in the Old Hat Stakes (gr. III) at Gulfstream Park.

Ballet Diva won her first two starts, including the Cassidy Stakes in her second effort in gate-to-wire fashion. Racing in the juvenile filly division of the Florida Sire Stakes series, Ballet Diva gradually stretched out, winning the seven-furlong Susan's Girl before finishing sixth in the 1 1/16-mile My Dear Girl.

Returned to sprinting, Ballet Diva delivered a two-length victory in the six-furlong House Party Stakes Nov. 28 at Gulfstream Park West. Ballet Diva tries that distance again in the Old Hat.

On paper, the race appears to have two early runners: Ballet Diva (9-5 on the morning-line) and undefeated 8-5 favorite Lucy N Ethel who ships in from Parx Racing after winning her first two career starts there. Starting from the rail in the field of six, Ballet Diva figures to go with Lucy N Ethel, either tracking or choosing to surge early.

Either way, I prefer Ballet Diva, who already has successful experience starting from the rail at Gulfstream as she won her first two career starts there from post one. If this early battle takes shape, I again prefer Ballet Diva because of her experience. While she has dueled early in several races, a contested early pace would be something new for Lucy N Ethel.

Assuming I'm right about that, there's a fairly good chance Lucy N Ethel could blink here, allowing one of the other starters to rally for second. Those exacta plays could provide value.

Dad's Kiddo rallied for second in the House Party and certainly could do so here. The other horse I could see rallying is longshot My Dear Venezuela (15-1 ML), who came from just off the pace in her previous maiden win but figures to be farther back here.

The play: Rather than spend any money on win wagers—Ballet Diva figures to be under 2-1 and ultimately could be favored—we'll pursue extra value in the exactas. $14 exacta Ballet Diva over Dad's Kiddo (1-3), $6 exacta Ballet Diva over My Dear Venezuela (1-4), plus a $3 exacta 3-1 and $2 exacta 4-1.

Last week: Runhappy ran like the champion he is, costing the column $25 in our bet against his low value. The column closes 2015 with $1,860.20 earned on $552.50 in wagers. Here's to trying to approach that ROI in 2016. BH

TODAY'S ENTRIES

SANTA YNEZ S. (GR. II)

Santa Anita Park, Saturday, January 2, Race 3

6.5f (dirt), $200,000, 3yo f, 1:30 PM (local)

After trying longer distances, Pretty N Cool will be back in her comfort zone sprinting. The Scat Daddy filly arguably had her best races at six and 6 1/2 furlongs, both grade II wins, in the Sorrento Stakes at Del Mar over the summer and in the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park in October.—J.B.

Santa Anita Park, Saturday, January 2, Race 8

9f (turf), $200,000, 4yo/up, 4:03 PM (local)

Two grade I winners will go toe-to-toe, but they couldn't differ more in style and experience. The speedy stalwart Obviously, winner of the Shoemaker Mile (gr. IT) in 2013 and 2014, will be the one to catch, while Chiropractor will likely be flying late after winning the Hollywood Derby (gr. IT) last time out.—J.B.

JEROME S. (GR. III)

Aqueduct, Saturday, January 2, Race 8

8.32f (dirt), $200,000, 3yo, 3:50 PM (local)

Flexibility is proven at Aqueduct and around two turns in graded stakes events, and rates the nod over a field of eight other freshly turned 3-year-olds in the Jerome. The New York-bred finished second in both the Nashua and Remsen. Donegal Moon has already been two turns four times and possesses the speed to be dangerous.—L.S.

HUTCHESON S. (GR. III)

Gulfstream Park, Saturday, January 2, Race 3

6f (dirt), $100,000, 3yo, 1:05 PM (local)

Jacks or Better Farm's Awesome Banner makes a big leap off a seven-month layoff from maiden winner to graded-stakes contender. The Stanley Gold-trained colt grabbed attention in his debut at Gulfstream June 5, when he rolled to an easy 9 3/4-length triumph while setting a track record for 4 1/2 furlongs (51.07 seconds).—E.M.
