The expansive clubhouse/grandstand at Laurel Park will continue to be the focus of reconstruction in 2016

MJC STAYS IN GROWTH MODE FOR 2016

By Tom LaMarra

After an eventful year that brought major capital investment and a 19.5% increase in pari-mutuel handle on live racing, the Maryland Jockey Club will continue in growth mode in 2016.

MJC president and general manager Sal Sinatra Jan. 4 said reconstruction of parts of Laurel Park's clubhouse will continue with upgrades to the box and dining area, creation of a sports bar, and a renovated Ruffian Room for groups. He said the MJC hopes to have two to four new off-track betting parlors operating this year; the first, in the Timonium grandstand at the Maryland State Fairgrounds, is set for a late January opening prior to the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic winter sale.

Pimlico Race Course, which hosts the 2016 Preakness Stakes (gr. I), is in line for new televisions and general maintenance work but no major construction, Sinatra said. The Pimlico barn area is open this winter, in part to accommodate some horsemen while live racing at Parx is on hiatus.

Expansion of the barn area remains a priority as the MJC focuses on facilities at Laurel, which will offer almost year-round racing in 2016. The MJC last year floated an idea to eventually move the Preakness to Laurel. BH

ZOFFANY HAS PRODUCTIVE FIRST CROP

By Clive Webb-Carter

While Europe boasts some of the world's leading stallions, a number of young sires emerged in 2015 to carry on the mantle.

The leading first-crop sire by prize money at £808,329 ($1,187,468) was Coolmore's Zoffany (Dansili), with 32 winners, including five stakes winners. His stud fee rose to €45,000 ($48,616) for 2016. Runner-up was Diktat's son Dream Ahead with earnings of £514,325 ($755,564) and 18 winners, including two stakes winners. Canford Cliffs (Tagula) was the leading freshman sire by individual winners with 34.

Europe's second-crop sires table was also dominated a number of promising stallions. The Aga Khan's Siyouni (Pivotal) headed the list with earnings of £1,737,065 ($2,551,818) and five stakes winners including triple group I winner Ervedya. Shamardal's Lope de Vega, who stands alongside Dream Ahead at Ballylinch Stud, followed his promising freshman year with a strong season, tallying a 53% winners-to-runners ratio and eight stakes winners.

Makfi, by Dubawi, was third on the second-crop table with 63 winners and four stakes winners headed by two-time group I winner Make Believe. BH

REPEAT WINNERS FOR MEDIA ECLIPSE AWARDS

By Ron Mitchell

Recipients in the three media Eclipse Award categories announced Jan. 4 were all repeat winners, including a 12th television/live racing award for NBC Sports.

NBC Sports was honored for its two-hour production of American Pharoah's sweep of the Triple Crown in the Belmont Stakes (gr. I).

Directors Brad and John Hennegan, who won the television feature category in 2008 for "First Saturday in May," and Digital Kitchen were awarded the Eclipse in the television/feature category for "Ironman Perry Ouzts," which tells the story of the 61-year-old journeyman jockey.

Mary Simon of Daily Racing Form was honored in the audio/multi-media and Internet category for "Regret's Derby at 100: Filly Made a Case for Equality," which explores the impact of the first filly to win

HAMPTON COURT SHUTTLES TO SPENDTHRIFT

By Myra Lewyn

Australian group 1 winner Hampton Court helped Spendthrift's new Australian operation get off the mark during the recently concluded Southern Hemisphere season and will shuttle to the farm's Central Kentucky base near Lexington for 2016.

Hampton Court's biggest career win came in Royal Randwick's Spring Champion Stakes (Aus-I), in which the sophomore eclipsed the 16-year-old track record for 1 1/4 miles in 2:00.19.

By three-time leading Australian sire Redoute's Choice, the 5-year-old bay is out of Broken Vow's daughter Roses 'n' Wine, who won the Algoma Stakes at Woodbine and finished second in the Wonder Where Stakes, a Canadian filly classic. He hails from the family of three-time Melbourne Cup (Aus-I) victress Makybe Diva.

"Redoute's Choice is Danehill's best son at stud, and Danehill was Danzig's best son at stud," Spendthrift owner B. Wayne Hughes said. "We believe Hampton Court can be an important and unique stallion for American breeders from a highly successful sire line."

Hampton Court will participate in Spendthrift's "Share the Upside" and "Breed Secure" programs, each at a $7,500 fee. BH

Prince Bishop captured last year's group I Dubai World Cup, which is preceded by 10 programs that make up the Dubai World Cup Carnival

IT'S CARNIVAL TIME IN DUBAI

By Myra Lewyn

The $38.9 million Dubai World Cup Carnival gets underway Jan. 7 with the first of 10 racing days leading up to the $30 million Dubai World Cup (UAE-I) card March 26.

There are 181 horses listed to compete, down 25% from last year's 240. Three U.S. runners have accepted, most notably 2014 Horse of the Year California Chrome, runner-up in last year's $10 million World Cup. Dubai Racing Club's executive director Frank Gabriel told UAE's The National he doesn't view the drop in early entries a concern.

"We had more horses apply last year, but when you look at it only around 170 to 180 of those actually raced, and those numbers increased throughout the Carnival," he said.

Gabriel also said U.S. trainers were sought at Breeders' Cup, but with winter racing opportunities at Gulfstream, Santa Anita, and Fair Grounds, Dubai is a hard sell.

The Carnival's opening-day feature is the $250,000 Al Maktoum Challenge Round I (UAE-II), the first in a series of three stepping-stones to the World Cup. BH

RACING COMMENTARY

with Bob Barry

LET DERBY DREAMING BEGIN

One day after their communal birthday, eight new 3-year-olds celebrated by taking a spirited lap around Aqueduct's inner dirt track in the grade III Jerome Stakes. There was a $200,000 purse, along with a total of 17 Kentucky Derby (gr. I) qualifying points that function like frequent flyer miles for people with fast horses and big dreams—except that if you don't collect enough to make the Derby field, you can't trade them in for magazine subscriptions.

Though Flexibility looked very good drawing off to win the Jerome, this handicapper has always figured that potential Derby-winning horses should be able to wrangle more hospitable working conditions than Ozone Park in January. Yes, that supposedly sharp angle looked obtuse in 2004, when Smarty Jones won Aqueduct's Count Fleet Stakes four months prior to winning the Derby. But the winnowing-out process for hundreds of Triple Crown nominees has to begin somewhere, and the inner track at Aqueduct still seems like a logical place to start.

Four horses have completed the Derby/Jerome double (Aristides, Carry Back, Chateaugay, and Fusaichi Pegasus), but they all won the Jerome about four months after winning the Derby, not the other way around. As America's third-oldest stakes behind the Phoenix and the Travers, the Jerome spent the first 145 years of its 150-year-old existence as an early fall test for 3-year-olds.

Now with 14 qualifying points (10 via the Jerome win), Flexibility is probably more than halfway to making the Derby field and gaining the chance to become the first horse to complete a re-ordered Jerome/Derby double.

Owning a Kentucky Derby winner, like being elected President, remains one of those rare "can't take that away from me" things that won't get lost in history's dustbin. Consider the fate of Leonard Jerome, who was instrumental in bringing American racing into existence.

In 1894 New York City used eminent domain to take over and demolish his racetrack and replace it with the Jerome Park Reservoir. After more than a century as a fixture of the Belmont fall meet, Jerome's namesake race was shelved in 2010 before being relegated to Aqueduct in 2011 by the New York Racing Association.

Then there is this indignity from the New York Times of Oct. 5, 1967: "The 100-year-old Madison Square home of Leonard Jerome, Sir Winston Churchill's grandfather, will be razed to make way for a skyscraper."

It's small wonder that wealthy individuals still chase brass rings such as high office and Derby victories. What good are reservoirs and avenues and stakes if you are only going to wind up being remembered as somebody's grandfather? BH
