Frank Conversation wins the El Camino Real Derby (gr III) Feb. 13 against a 13-horse field

FRANK CONVERSATION HEADED TO UAE DERBY

By Lenny Shulman

A trip to Dubai to prepare for the Kentucky Derby (gr. I) has been confirmed for Reddam Racing's promising 3-year-old Frank Conversation.

While trainer Doug O'Neill and owner Paul Reddam are deciding whether to run their undefeated champion Nyquist in the Santa Anita Derby or Florida Derby (both gr. I), they have decided Frank Conversation, the El Camino Real Derby (gr. III) and California Derby winner, will contest the March 26 UAE Derby (UAE-I).

With both colts targeting the Kentucky Derby, it is understandable that the connections want to keep the two on separate paths. But the Dubai race is a most unusual choice.

"It's not a traditional route to the Derby," Reddam said. "But it's six weeks between races, it's $2 million, and I can send my rider (Mario Gutierrez) over there because it's an off week. The horse is 5-1 with the English bookmakers, which tells you he's live.

"If we didn't have Nyquist, we wouldn't be taking Frank Conversation over there."

Frank Conversation (Quality Road—Rushen Heat, by Unusual Heat), whose two derby wins came on synthetic surfaces, will be running on dirt in Dubai. BH

The EHV-1 outbreak has kept Sunland Park in New Mexico closed since Jan. 22

PLANS FOR SUNLAND PARK TO RESUME RACING

By Ron Mitchell

Believing the worst of the equine herpesvirus outbreak which has kept Sunland Park closed since Jan. 22 is over, the New Mexico track took entries Feb. 19 in order to tentatively resume racing Feb. 26.

So far, 72 of the approximately 1,500 horses stabled at Sunland Park, along with two others in Texas, have tested positive for the disease. Six horses were euthanized due to the effects of EHV-1, which causes upper respiratory infection and can also cause neurological disease.

Barns in which EHV-1 positive horses resided were placed in quarantine; so far 17 barns have been removed from the isolation list. Once racing resumes, only horses from barns not under quarantine will be permitted to participate; no outside horses will be accepted at the track for the time being.

During the New Mexico Racing Commission's special meeting Feb. 17 to discuss the outbreak and plan to resume racing, Sunland Park racing director Dustin Dix said the key to keeping the disease under control was containment.

"That's where everything got away from us," Dix said, according to the Associated Press, "This wasn't contained at the outset." BH

FOREVER DARLING'S LONG TRIP TO AVOID SONGBIRD

By Alastair Bull

Trainer Richard Baltas has a good reason for sending Forever Darling from the West Coast to Louisiana for the Feb. 20 Rachel Alexandra (gr. II) rather than staying at home.

"There's a horse out here called Songbird, and I'd like to avoid her," Baltas said.

Katsumi Yoshida's Forever Darling, the sole out-of-town horse contesting the Rachel Alexandra, is seventh on the Kentucky Oaks (gr. I) leaderboard. Eighth behind Songbird in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (gr. I), she has since won the Santa Ynez Stakes (gr. II) Jan. 2.

She is one of two Congrats horses in the race, the other being Venus Valentine. Their sire has shown a remarkable bias toward fillies in his stud record—of his 24 stakes winners, 20 are fillies, including the best 3-year-old filly in Dubai, Polar River.

Forever Darling is the second morning-line pick at 7-2. Favored at 7-5 is Silverbulletday winner Stageplay, who along with the undefeated Tapit filly Royal Obsession, provides Rachel Alexandra's trainer Steve Asmussen with a strong hand. BH

FULL BROTHER TO UNTAPABLE SET FOR DEBUT

By Frank Angst

Broodmare Fun House could begin to add another successful chapter Feb. 20 when her son Taprize is scheduled to debut in the third race at Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots.

Winchell Thoroughbreds homebred Taprize (Tapit), is a full brother to 2014 champion 3-year-old filly Untapable and half brother to grade I winner and young sire Paddy O'Prado.

With an expected field of eight in the six-furlong maiden race for 3-year-olds, Taprize drew the rail for his racing debut. Listed at 9-2 morning-line, he has worked four times since Jan. 19 for trainer Steve Asmussen, including a five-furlong move in 1:01 4/5 Feb. 2 at Sam Houston Race Park, second-fastest of 23 at the distance.

Untapable completed her third workout since Jan. 28 when breezing five furlongs in 1:01 4/5 at Fair Grounds Feb. 18 as she prepares for her 5-year-old debut. Untapable closed 2015 with a runner-up finish in the Spinster Stakes (gr. I) Oct. 4 at Keeneland. BH

KY INCENTIVE FUND CONTINUES GROWTH

By Tom LaMarra

The Kentucky Thoroughbred Breeders' Incentive Fund continued its rebound last year, with another increase in the number of mares nominated to the program funded by the 6% state sales tax on stallion fees.

According to KTBIF statistics, 9,517 mares were nominated last year, up from 8,947 in 2014 and 8,386 in 2013. The 2015 figure is the highest since 9,968 in 2009.

Under the program, mares are required to board in Kentucky during their entire gestation, and the resulting foals are eligible for breeders' awards based on their eventual earnings at the racetrack.

Officials said in 2015, eligible horses won 260 U.S. graded stakes and 31 group races in four other countries under the program that paid more than $10.5 million. For the first time, Darley topped the KTBIF list with awards in excess of $260,000 with 91 wins, including three at Kentucky racetracks.

Thoroughbreds received 80% of the overall Kentucky Breeders' Incentive Fund; Standardbreds get 13% and all other breeds 7%. The Thoroughbred awards total for 2015 is up from $10.3 million the previous year. BH

KEENELAND, NYRA PLAN ALL STAKES PICK 4

On one of the biggest race days this spring, Pick 4 bettors will have the chance to play a wager that bundles four major stakes races at two different tracks.

The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission on Feb. 19 approved plans to allow Keeneland and NYRA to offer a Pick 4 wager that will tie the Blue Grass (gr. I) and Ashland (gr. I) at Keeneland with the Wood Memorial (gr. I) and one other stakes at Aqueduct Racetrack April 9.

although few have stood the test of time. Still, giving horseplayers a chance to wager on four of the day's top races is attractive and has few drawbacks. Both tracks will continue to offer their usual menu of Pick 4 wagers.

A few weeks ago this column documented the lack of all-stakes Pick 4 wagers at tracks like Gulfstream Park and Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots. This winter those tracks have featured days where they carded at least four stakes but didn't offer a Pick 4 wager that allowed players to handicap only stakes races.

Fair Grounds officials at that time said they

DAVE ALCOSSER/AMIE M. EBERHARDT

The Wood Memorial at Aqueduct (left, won by Frosted in 2015) and the Blue Grass at Keeneland (won by Carpe Diem last year) will be part of a two-track, all-stakes Pick 4 in April

The wager will be similar to the National Pick 4 wager first offered in 2005 that tied together stakes at Oaklawn Park and Keeneland.

Kentucky will host the wagering pool for the as yet unnamed Keeneland-Aqueduct wager. Players will benefit from Keeneland's lower Pick 4 takeout of 19%, compared to NYRA's 24%. Also, the Lexington track features lower host fees, which could motivate outlets offering the wager to highlight it to bettors.

In an age of simulcasting and advance-deposit wagering, it would seem like such multi-track wagers stand a better chance of catching on, were hopeful of offering an all-stakes Pick 4 wager on Risen Star day, a goal that came together. The Feb. 20 Fair Grounds card will offer a Pick 4 on the Daisy Devine, Rachel Alexandra (gr. II), Fair Grounds Handicap (gr. III), and Risen Star (gr. II).

Field sizes and too many Pick 4 pools factor into the equation, but giving Pick 4 bettors a chance to focus on the top races seems like a no-brainer. People like seeing—and betting—the best a sport has to offer. There's a reason the Super Bowl handles more action than a late-September NFL game. BH

MINESHAFT H. (GR. III)

Fair Grounds, Saturday, February 20, Race 5
8.5f (dirt), $125,000, 4yo/up, 2:25 PM (local)
