An Into Mischief colt posts the fastest quarter-mile time on day one of the OBS June sale under tack show

INTO MISCHIEF COLT POSTS SPEEDY TIME

By Ron Mitchell

A Kentucky-bred Into Mischief colt from the family of Triple Crown winner Affirmed posted the fastest quarter-mile time of :20 4/5 when the first of six under tack workout sessions for the Ocala Breeders' Sales Co.'s June sale of 2-year-olds in training and horses of racing age was conducted June 5 in Ocala, Fla.

Consigned as Hip 93 by Thoroughbred Champions Training Center, the colt bred by H. Allen Poindexter was purchased for $40,000 by Jaime Mejia from the Four Star Sales consignment at last year's Keeneland September yearling sale. He is out of a half sister to Canadian grade III winner Honolua Storm, and third dam Won't She Tell is a stakes-winning half sister to Affirmed.

In the workouts over OBS's all-weather track, the fastest one furlong time of :10 was shared by two colts and a filly.

One-Two Pimlico Exacta Provides First Winner for Freshman Sire CAL NATION

(Distorted Humor --- She's a Winner, by A.P. Indy)

First-time starter PARADE OF NATIONS (homebred for John E. Williamson III) outdueled EARNED IT (also by Cal Nation) by 2 ¼-lengths at Pimlico on June 5 to become his sire's first winner. CAL NATION is a 1/2 to Bluegrass Cat (G1, $1,761,280), Lord of the Game (G2, $543,730) and full to Dramedy (G2, $271,440), all out of She's a Winner, full sister to Supercharger, dam of Super Saver.

Second dam is Get Lucky.

the female family of leading sire Unbridled's Song. Bred by Blackstone Farm, the colt has sold twice previously, most recently acquired by agent A. C. Elliott for $65,000 from the Equest Thoroughbreds offerings at last year's Keeneland September sale.

The other speedy colt, Hip 188 from the Pure Silk consignment, is a son of Yesbyjimmy bred in Florida by Gary Lee Mahon and Jacqueline Jane Diamond and named Yes Darlin. Consigned by Summerfield to the 2014 OBS October sale, he was purchased by Las Palmas Farm for $2,000. His dam, Darlin Dixie, is a multiple stakes-winning daughter of Dixie Brass who is a half sister to multiple stakes winners Illusive Ghost and Slewance.

Hip 184, an Adios Charlie filly named Adios Dawn, was bred in Florida by Curtis Mikkelsen and Patricia Horth. She is from the family that produced stakes winners Diplomat's Reward, Dispersed Reward, and Mom's Laugh.

Among six 2-year-olds that breezed three furlongs, the best time of :33 3/5 was turned in by Hip 125, a Malibu Moon colt bred in Kentucky by his consignor, Omega Farm. Produced from the stakes-winning Grand Slam mare Cintaeosa, the colt had been a $200,000 RNA at last year's Keeneland fall yearling sale and was bought by George Mellon for $28,000 from Woodford Thoroughbreds at this year's OBS March 2-year-olds in training sale.

The best of two half-mile workers, in :47 3/5, was Hip 130, a Colonel John colt bred in West Virginia by Schiano Racing Inc. and consigned by 30-30 Ranch. Offered by Select Sales at the Keeneland September yearling sale, the colt, named Bacoli, was bought by Socorro Martinez/30-30 Ranch for $4,500.

The sale will be held June 14-19, with sessions beginning daily at 10:30 a.m. (all times Eastern). The under tack sessions continue at 7:30 a.m. daily through June 11. BH

MIDDLEBURG ADDS TO MONMOUTH PARK RECORD

By Jeremy Balan

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Firestone's homebred Middleburg has shown his best at Monmouth Park and gave another example June 5 in the $100,000 Red Bank Stakes (gr. IIIT).

With a picture-perfect ride from jockey Joe Bravo, the 6-year-old son of Lemon Drop Kid rode the rail tracking the pace almost all the way around the grass course, angled out at the top of the stretch to pass the front-runners, and held off at late drive from Vyjack to win by a neck. Rose Brier held for third.

The Christophe Clement-trained Middleburg is a nose away from being undefeated on the Monmouth grass. He won the 2015 Cliff Hanger (gr. IIIT) and was a nose back in last year's Monmouth Stakes (gr. IIT).

"This horse is just so good," Bravo said. "We got the perfect trip in behind horses and he settled great. Around the turn we moved to the outside and he just ran those horses down. It's fun to ride ones like this."

A Virginia-bred out of the Spectrum mare Rum Charger, Middleburg is a half brother to multiple grade I winner Winchester. He has a 6-8-3 record from 19 starts and earnings of $429,760. BH

SHOCKING DIMENSION IN CONNAUGHT CUP

By Jeremy Balan

By far the longest shot on the board June 5 in the $200,000 Connaught Cup Stakes (Can-IIT), Riverside Bloodstock's Dimension provided the stunner of the day at Woodbine.

After a slow start in the seven-furlong turf sprint, the 8-year-old Medicean gelding was still able to stay within striking distance early, rallied in the middle of the track in the stretch, and outfinished last-out graded stakes winner Passion for Action to win by a half-length. Bye Bye Bernie completed the trifecta, another length back.

Dimension's last graded win came back in the 2013 Play the King (Can-IIT). His last victory was a score in the 2014 Kentucky Downs Turf Dash, which he followed with six straight off-the-board finishes.

"He loves it up here with the European style turf course, but he hasn't had a lot of luck in this race," Conor Murphy said. "Two years ago, he stumbled out of the gate and never got into it, and last year it rained heavily a couple of hours before the race and he really needs quick ground."

The winner paid $42.70, $8.80, and $8.90 across the board.

Dimension has a 6-6-1 record from 32 starts with $467,539 in earnings. BH

FIRST WINNERS FOR HANSEN, CAL NATION

By Myra Lewyn and Alastair Bull

Former champion juvenile male Hansen and the grade II-placed Maryland stallion Cal Nation both had their first winners as sires June 5.

Hansen, now based in South Korea, got on the board when the aptly named Hansen's Victory went gate to wire at Hastings Race Course.

Hansen's Victory, trained by Troy Taylor for a partnership that includes the North American Thoroughbred Horse Co., won by 1 3/4 lengths and covered the 3 1/2-furlong maiden special weight race in :39.97 on a fast track.

The bay gelding was bred in Kentucky by 3480 Equine from the multiple stakes-winning Storm Victory mare Victory With Class. He was a Can$65,000 ($49,205) buy at the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society's British Columbia sale in September 2015.

A 7-year-old by Tapit—Stormy Sunday, by Sir Cat, Hansen stands for the Korean Racing Association, to whom he was sold for stud duty after standing his initial season in 2013 at Coolmore's Ashford Stud near Versailles, Ky. There are 102 2-year-olds in his first crop.

Raced by breeder Kendall Hansen and Skychai Racing, Hansen retired with a 5-2-0 record from nine starts and earnings of $1,810,805. He won all three starts at 2—the 2011 Breeders' Cup Juvenile (gr. I) and Kentucky Cup Juvenile after breaking his maiden by an eye-catching 12 1/4 lengths at Turfway Park. At 3, he won the Gotham Stakes and Iowa Derby (both gr. III) and finished second in the Holy Bull Stakes (gr. III) and Toyota Blue Grass Stakes (gr. I).

Cal Nation's first winner, Parade of Nations, took out a maiden claiming race at Pimlico Race Course. Battled early by Jet Home, Parade of Nations grabbed the lead at the top of the stretch and finished strongly under Feargal Lynch to win by 2 1/4 lengths.

The race provided an exacta for Cal Nation as another of his sons, Earned It, took second, 7 3/4 lengths ahead of the rest of the six-horse field.

John E. Williamson's homebred gelding is the first foal of Parade of Colors (Leading the Parade), a winner of three. Parade of Nations' third dam is Twin Bet (Bet Twice), a stakes winner of the Waya Handicap at Hollywood Park, whose progeny include stakes winner Rahy's Chance.

Cal Nation, by Distorted Humor, is a half brother to four stakes winners, including Haskell Invitational (gr. I) winner Bluegrass Cat. He won three of his nine starts and was stakes-placed twice, including a third in the Carry Back Stakes (gr. II).

Cal Nation stands at Country Life Farm in Bel Air, Md., for $2,500.

Meanwhile, the first two runners by Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands (gr. I) winner I'll Have Another finished out of the top three in juvenile races in Japan. Double Split finished fourth at Hanshin, and Meiner Sieger finished sixth at Tokyo. BH

Effinex wins the Oaklawn Handicap

EFFINEX AMONG STEPHEN FOSTER POSSIBLES

By Blood-Horse Staff

Tri-Bone Stables' New York-bred Effinex, winner of the Oaklawn Handicap (gr. II) in his last start April 16, is among the nominees for the $500,000 Stephen Foster Handicap (gr. I) June 18 at Churchill Downs.

Trained by James Jerkens, Effinex, a 5-year-old Mineshaft horse, won the grade I Clark Handicap at Churchill last November after his second-place finish behind Horse of the Year and Triple Crown winner American Pharoah in the Breeders' Cup Classic (gr. I).

Churchill officials said Effinex is expected for the 1 1/8-mile Stephen Foster, which will be run at night as part of a "Downs After Dark" program. The race is a "Win and You're In" event for the Breeders' Cup Classic.

A few others pointing to the Stephen Foster are four-time graded stakes winner Majestic Harbor and grade III winner Eagle, who finished first and second, respectively, in the Alysheba Stakes (gr. II) at Churchill May 7. Last year's winner, Noble Bird, is nominated but most likely will run in the June 11 Metropolitan Handicap (gr. I) at Belmont Park, track officials said. BH

'ESSENCE' OF THE THOROUGHBRED ON EXHIBIT

By Eric Mitchell

An exhibit featuring more than 25 large-scale black-and-white photographs of some of America's premier racehorses and stallions will open June 9 at the Steven Kasher Gallery in Manhattan.

Neil Latham, a fine arts and commercial photographer, spent 2013 crisscrossing the country to pursue a vision—to capture the essence of the Thoroughbred on film using medium- and large-format cameras. Latham said he used film because the images are more truthful and provide a "softness and subtlety that enhanced the emotional connection."

"I'm intrigued by the juxtaposition of strength and power with beauty and fragility, the illustration of determination and character through taut muscles and coursing veins after a fast-paced run, the wild spirit of a charging herd," Latham said. "I've never felt as deeply about anything as I have about this work."

His subjects include A.P. Indy, Curlin, Ghostzapper, Tapit, and the two newest inductees into the National Racing Hall of Fame, Rachel Alexandra and Zenyatta.

Called "Neil Latham: American Thoroughbred," the exhibit runs through July 29. An opening reception will be held June 9, 6-8 p.m., at 515 W. 26th St., New York City. BH

ROUGET TRIUMPHS WITH ALMANZOR

By Myra Lewyn

Trainer Jean-Claude Rouget sent out favorite Mekhtaal in the Prix du Jockey Club (Fr-I, French Derby) June 5 but his lightly regarded Almanzor pulled off the victory at 20-1 odds.

Jean-Bernard Eyquem drove Almanzor across finish line, 1 1/2 lengths ahead of late-running Zarak. Prix Hocquart (Fr-II) victor Mekhtaal, favored at 9-2, was a non-threatening eighth of 16 runners in the French classic at Chantilly.

Talismanic led early before Robin of Navan took up the running after the first quarter-mile. Eyquem waited in midfield with Almanzor, who quickened to lead in the final furlong to seal the win.

The time for about 2,100 meters (about 1 5/16 miles) was 2:11.62 on soft turf.

French Guineas fifth-place finisher Zarak, a son of Dubawi out of the Aga Khan's undefeated star mare Zarkava, put in a good run after racing at the back of field early and outfinished supplementary entrant Dicton by 1 3/4 lengths for second. The Aga Khan was seeking a second Derby triumph in as many days following Harzand's victory Saturday in the Investec Epsom Derby (Eng-I).

Rouget landed his second triumph in the French Derby following Le Havre in 2009 and his second of the season after Le Havre's daughter La Cressonniere took the Poule d'Essai des Poulaches (Fr-I, French One Thousand Guineas).

"I've always liked him and he was well drawn, but you couldn't say before he was among the favorites," he said about Almanzor, whom he secured for €100,000 ($134,000) at the 2014 Arqana Deauville yearling sale. The colt won a minor stakes at 2 and captured the Prix de Guiche (Fr-III) by two lengths May 10 at Chantilly. "To win races like (the French Derby) is why we all get up every morning."

Almanzor is owned by Ecurie Antonio Caro and Gerard Augustin-Normand, also owners of La Cressonniere. He has five wins and a third from seven starts. In his outing prior to the Prix de Guiche, he finished third to Dicton in the Prix de Fontainebleau (Fr-III) in April at Chantilly.

Bred in France by Haras d'Etreham, Almanzor is from the first crop of French group I-winning juvenile Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) and is his sire's first black-type winner. He is out of the unraced Maria's Mon mare Darkova, whose family was developed by the Aga Khan and his daughter Zahra.

Three group II races were also on the Chantilly card Sunday, with perhaps the most notable winner being Volta (Siyouni), who took out the Prix de Sandringham over 1,600 meters (about a mile). The race may have earned her a start in the Prix de Diane (Fr-I, French Oaks), though she would need to be supplemented.

The other group II winners were One Foot In Heaven (Fastnet Rock) in the Grand Prix de Chantilly, and Son Cesio (Zafeen) in the Prix du Gros-Chene. BH

LOGOTYPE UPSETS MAURICE IN YASUDA KINEN

By Alastair Bull

Japan's Horse of the Year Maurice (Screen Hero) suffered his first defeat in more than a year when he was beaten by longshot Logotype (Lo-hengrin) in the Yasuda Kinen (Jpn-I) June 5.

Maurice was heavily favored after winning the Champions Mile (HK-I) at his previous start, but Logotype got away with slow fractions in front and scored at odds of 36-1.

Logotype was good enough to win the 2013 Satsuki Sho (Jpn-I, Japanese Two Thousand Guineas), but hadn't won in 16 starts since, though he was runner-up in the Lord Derby Challenge Trophy (Jpn-III) at his previous start.

"We had to wait for a long time to justify Logotype's true form as a grade I winner and I am grateful that he had stayed healthy to this day to make it happen," trainer Tsuyoshi Tanaka said.

Maurice's connections said earlier in the week

Logotype is too strong in the Yasuda Kinen for Maurice (rail) and Fiero (number 10) that he could have done with another week of preparation, and jockey Tommy Berry said he could have benefited from a couple of extra gallops.

"He still would have ended up in the same position in the race with that lack of tempo, but he might have just relaxed a little bit better," Berry said. BH

WINNING RETURN FOR REQUITE

By Blood-Horse Staff

The 4-year-old Warrior's Reward colt Requite, away since last August at Saratoga Race Course, returned a winner June 5 in the $75,000 Parrot Key Stakes at Gulfstream Park and could make his next start in the $250,000 Smile Sprint (gr. II).

The Smile Sprint at six furlongs will be held July 2 as part of the Florida track's Summit of Speed program. The stakes is a Breeders' Cup Sprint (gr. I) "Win and You're In" race.

Requite, owned by Limestone Thoroughbreds and trained by George Weaver, finished second in the Amsterdam Stakes (gr. II) in upstate New York in his final race of 2015. In the summer of 2014 he broke his maiden in his career debut, also at Saratoga.

Requite, bred in Kentucky by Limestone Thoroughbreds and Dr. Wilfred Robinson, won the six-furlong Parrot Key under Eddie Castro by 3 1/2 lengths in 1:09.18 on a track rated fast. He is headed to Saratoga but probably will return for the Summit of Speed.

"We're going to ship (to Saratoga June 6) but we're going to keep an eye on the Summit of Speed race down here," Weaver said. "We'll train him up there and bring him back down." BH

INDIANA DERBY TARGETED FOR THE PLAYER

By Blood-Horse Staff

The Player, a 3-year-old Street Hero colt, is headed to bigger things after a victory June 3 in an allowance race at Churchill Downs.

Owned and bred by trainer William "Buff" Bradley in partnership with Carl Hurst, The Player is out of the Gilded Time mare Hour Queen, who was bred by Hurst, Bradley, and Bradley's late father, Fred. Hour Queen is out of the Williamstown mare Town Queen, yet another homebred who gave Buff Bradley his first stakes win in the 2002 My Charmer Stakes at Turfway Park.

The Player is being pointed to the Indiana Derby (gr. II) July 16 at Indiana Grand Racing & Casino.

"Most of my big horses are in this pedigree," Bradley told Churchill Downs media officials. "I bought Town Queen's mother (Regal Export) for $20,000 and she produced King of Speed, Town Queen, and Chief Export, who were all black-type horses. If (The Player) moves on, this will be the biggest horse that we have had out of this pedigree.

"We always thought that this would be our big pedigree and then we had Brass Hat out of a different one and then Groupie Doll out of another different one, so we're kind of glad to see this horse come along and that's why we kept the mare. This family matures late—you don't see them really start coming around until they're about 4 years old. I think he has got great conformation, he's sound, and he could really improve."

The Player finished fourth in his debut last fall at Churchill in a race that included Tom's Ready, For-evamo, and Cherry Wine. He then finished second behind Conquest Harlequin in a maiden special weight event at Keeneland in April, and then broke his maiden by 5 1/2 lengths in a one-turn-mile event at Churchill.

In the June 3 race, also at one mile, The Player was in front before the half-mile mark under Shaun Bridgmohan and won by 1 1/2 lengths over the highly regarded Unbridled Outlaw, who was ridden by Corey Lanerie.

"What made me feel good was after the race, (Lanerie) came up to me before The Player even walked in the winner's circle and said, 'Buff I ran right up to him and your horse just hit the next gear. I thought I was going to go by him and your horse went on.' So he's a very nice horse and I've got other jockeys complimenting me before I even got to the winner's circle, which was good.

"I said that if this horse can win this race then we'll go to the Indiana Derby. I felt like he's that type of horse. He's a nice, big, good-looking horse and he has got the right demeanor. He knows how to relax and he knows how to take everything in. He's had personality from day one."

The $500,000 Indiana Derby is run at 1 1/16 miles. BH

SMALL CROPS, BIG RUNNERS

By Eric Mitchell

A feature article in the June 4 issue of Blood-Horse highlights the leading active North American sires by percentage of black-type stakes winners.

Included in the list are stallions represented by a minimum of 100 named foals of racing age. MarketWatch decided to stretch the boundary a bit to see whether we might identify any regional sires that are finding success despite their smaller crops. In addition to the 100-foal minimum, we added all sires with at least two crops of racing age that also had a minimum of 15 named foals per crop.

The expanded criteria picked up three noteworthy stallions: Valor Farm's My Golden Song, Flying Horse Farm's Sungold, and Rockridge Stud's Giant Surprise. Their percentages of black-type stakes winners are high enough to put them among the top 25 stallions ranked by this statistic.

My Golden Song (Unbridled's Song—Golden Par, by Gold Meridian) is a grade III stakes-placed runner who has sired eight black-type winners (8.4%) and two graded stakes winners (2.1%) out of 95 named foals of racing age. The 13-year-old stallion has stood his entire stud career at Valor Farm near Pilot Point, Texas, north of Dallas-Ft. Worth. He stands for $4,000.

My Golden Song's graded stakes winners are Fiftyshadesofgold, out of Hadif Cat (Hadif), and Thegirlinthat'song, out of Belle of the Band (Dixieland Band). Fiftyshadesofgold won the grade III Eight Belles Stakes at Churchill Downs in 2014 and Churchill's Debutante Stakes in 2013. Thegirlinthat'song won the La Canada Stakes (gr. II) at Santa Anita Park and placed third in the grade I Santa Margarita Stakes.

Sungold (A.P. Indy—Queen's Word, by Kingmambo), who is 14, has been at Flying Horse Farm in British Columbia for his entire stud career. His 2016 fee is $2,000. His first three dams are all stakes winners, and his second (Under Oath) and third (China Bound) dams are multiple stakes producers.

Sungold has sired four black-type stakes winners (8.7%) out of 46 named foals. His best stakes winners are Brass and Gold, two-time winner of the British Columbia Cup Classic Handicap (2013, 2015), and Sunnyside Gal, who won the 2011 British Columbia Cup Debutante Stakes.

Giant Surprise (Giant's Causeway—Twisted Sis, by A.P. Indy) is off to a good start with two stakes winners and eight winners out of 17 starters from two crops of racing age. His two stakes winners, representing 6.45% of 31 foals of racing age, are Sudden Surprise and Super Surprise. Out of the More Than Ready mare Ready and Good, Sudden Surprise became the star of Giant Surprise's first crop by winning four stakes in 2015—the Funny Cide Stakes, New York Stallion Series Stakes, Bertram F. Bongard Stakes, and the Notebook Stakes.

Giant Surprise, who is 7, has been standing at Rockridge Stud since 2014. His 2016 fee is $5,000. BH
