DEL MAR DILEMMA: TOP 3-YEAR-OLDS LEAVE TOWN

By Jeremy Balan

The end of July provided two banner weekends for Del Mar.

July 23, California Chrome and Dortmund engaged in a stretch-run battle to remember in the San Diego (gr. II). The excitement was matched a week later, when Stellar Wind and Beholder threw down their own duel in a dramatic edition of the Clement L. Hirsch (gr. I).

But on the opposite coast each weekend, Southern California's younger stars grabbed their share of the spotlight.

A day after the San Diego, Songbird put on the most impressive performance of her career in the Coaching Club American Oaks (gr. I) at Saratoga Race Course—and a day after the Hirsch, Exaggerator proved the best in the Betfair.com Haskell Invitational (gr. I) at Monmouth Park, where he defeated fellow Southern California-based colts American Freedom and Nyquist.

It was yet another reminder of a significant void in the Del Mar stakes schedule. Although Del Mar features ample opportunity for 3-year-olds of both genders on the turf, options for non-state-bred sophomore races on the main track are essentially limited to two stakes races—the $100,000 Shared Belief (formerly the El Cajon) for 3-year-olds Aug. 26 and the Torrey Pines Stakes (gr. III) for 3-year-old fillies Aug. 28.

The July 2016 examples are just the latest in a long line. In recent years, star horses like American Pharoah and California Chrome trained locally during their 3-year-old seasons but shipped elsewhere for summer and early fall starts.

"Everything is grass, grass, grass," said trainer Art Sherman, who sent California Chrome to Parx Racing for the Pennsylvania Derby (gr. II) in September 2014. "If your horse can't run on grass, there's no dirt races. I think that hurts them and people go someplace else."

The competition with tracks to the east, many of which have boosted purses for 3-year-old stakes with money added from gaming, is one of the main hurdles for the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, according to executive vice president of racing and industry relations Tom Robbins.

Robbins said he and other top brass at the Del Mar have considered adding a significant 3-year-old race in recent years, but the challenges outweigh the potential gains. Del Mar already cut funds to graded stakes and overnight purses in 2016 because of decreased handle, and adding a major 3-year-old stakes lucrative enough to draw top talent would likely require taking funds from other divisions, which would not be met kindly by horsemen.

"We're faced with a seven- or eight-week meet and there's obviously money issues to put together a race like that," Robbins said. "What would a major 3-year-old race be, as well? Would ($500,000) keep horses here when you're facing the Haskell at $1 million or the Travers (gr. I) at $1.25 million?"

But the desire from local trainers to stay close to home—if financially viable—is unquestionable, especially with the Breeders' Cup so often in the region.

"It might be smart for Del Mar, because if you look at all the races, they're headlined by West Coast horses," said trainer Keith Desormeaux, who decided to keep Exaggerator on the East Coast following his Triple Crown campaign. "Not a trainer in the world wants to travel. That's a no-brainer. We want to race where we train, but we also have to make money for our owners."

"So, if the lucrative purses are out of town, we have to go. But I don't know how Del Mar could do it. There's a huge desire from management and trainers, but it's a matter of economics. We just don't want to decimate the stakes program. It's barely keeping up now."

There is always the option for 3-year-olds to run against older horses at Del Mar. The San Diego, Hirsch, Cougar II (gr. III), Bing Crosby (gr. I), Pacific Classic (gr. I), and Pat O'Brien (gr. I) are all races for 3-year-olds and up. But the trend seems to be moving against running high-profile sophomores against older horses, considering the money available in restricted races in the East, even though horses like Shared Belief (2014) and Dullahan (2012) won the Pacific Classic in recent years.

Trainer Doug O'Neill flirted with running Nyquist in the San Diego, but ultimately opted for the Haskell.

"Believe me, (owners) Paul and Zillah (Reddam) were leaning hard not to put him on a plane with the Breeders' Cup back at Santa Anita," O'Neill said. "But running against his age group and maintaining that grade I status took over."

Barring a major sponsorship deal or another revenue stream, the prospects of Del Mar adding nationally competitive 3-year-old stakes is a longshot.

"To throw another 3-year-old race in the mix—where some of these tracks are throwing a half-million, $750,000, and a million just to get five horses—I fight this battle every year," Robbins said. "I never say never. We talk about it as a group every year, and we lay out the pros and cons, but money doesn't drop from the sky like it does for (the New York Racing Association). We're a little bit jealous, but that's the reality. That's what we're faced with."

TAPIT COLTS LEAD F-T SARATOGA PINHOOKS

By Ron Mitchell

At last year's Keeneland November breeding stock sale, the partners of Hunter Valley Farm took a big risk purchasing a Tapit colt for $500,000—a hefty price tag but one with a lot of potential.

Not only was the weanling sired by Gainesway's leading sire, he was a half brother to four-time grade I winner Princess of Sylmar, the 2014 Fasig-Tipton November breeding stock sale topper that sold for $3.1 million. Further enhancing the Tapit colt's potential value, his dam, Storm Dixie, also sold at Fasig-Tipton November for $1.9 million.

Nine months later, Hunter Valley's investment will be put to the test as one of three Tapits leading the previously sold pinhook group at this year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale Aug. 8-9 in Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

The colt is consigned by Hunter Valley as Hip 164.

"Any time you give that sum of money for a weanling to pinhook you try to get as much in your favor as possible," Hunter Valley partner Fergus Galvin said. "We thought if there was such a thing as value in a half-a-million dollar weanling, he was it."

Obviously, to command that kind of price as a weanling the colt had to be attractive, and Galvin said he has only continued to improve.

"He has great balance and moves very well," Galvin said. "We've had a handful of people see him before the sale and it has been nothing but positive vibes from everybody who has seen him."

Another son of Tapit, Hip 208 from the Craig and Holly Bendoroff's Denali Stud consignment, is the top previously purchased pinhook in the Saratoga sale, as a Mill Valley Racing buy for $600,000 from the Three Chimneys Farm consignment at last year's Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November sale.

Bred by Three Chimneys, the colt was produced from Aubby K, a grade I-winning daughter of Street Sense who sold for $2.4 million at last year's Fasig-Tipton November auction. His female family includes grade I winner Dream Lady and Argentine group I winner Zapata.

The third Tapit pinhook is Hip 27, a gray colt plucked from Woodford Thoroughbred's Keeneland November consignment by Exclusive Equine Investments on a high bid of $390,000.

Bred in Kentucky by SF Bloodstock, the colt consigned by Top Line Sales is a half brother to grade II winner Corfu. His dam Fashion Cat is a half sister to three-time grade I winner and sire Peace Rules, and multiple stakes winner and stakes producer Wild Fashion.

Completing the top five Saratoga pinhooks are Hip 46, an Uncle Mo colt consigned by Dromoland who was purchased by Copper River Farm as a weanling for $370,000, and Hip 187, a daughter of The Factor consigned by Denali Stud. A half sister to grade I winner The Big Beast, the filly was bought as a weanling by Alex and JoAnn Lieblong for $350,000. BH

WHY WAR FRONT JUVENILES THRIVE IN EUROPE

By Eric Mitchell

War Front juveniles are off to another sparkling start this year, with 10 winners through Aug. 4, including three group stakes winners and a group-placed finisher in England.

Nowhere is the spotlight on War Front's juveniles brighter than in Europe. Among the son of Danzig's 18 runners that won black-type stakes at 2, 10 won in Europe and three of those were grade I winners. War Front's juveniles seem to excel more overseas than in North America because of a combination of genetics and racing culture.

War Front as a racehorse was a brilliant, graded stakes-winning dirt sprinter. As a sire, however, he has been following in the grassy steps of his sire Danzig, who also stood at Claiborne Farm and sired influential European sires Danehill and Green Desert. Of War Front's $36,297,649 in progeny earnings through Aug. 4, 63% was earned in turf races. Also, of his 47 black-type stakes winners to date, 40 won turf stakes.

Besides the proclivity to turf, European owners and breeders favor War Front because his progeny are fast.

Juvenile races going five to seven furlongs are more important in Europe than they are in North America; here, the ability to handle two turns carries greater importance, European horsemen believe.

"War Front is strong, but he is short-coupled and a bit too compact," said Michael Youngs, an independent bloodstock consultant based in Newmarket, England. "American horses need to be longer and more powerful in front; they get into a rhythm and grind away to the end. With a turf horse, you're changing gears. Through two turns or one turn, you have to find position and accelerate at the end. In Europe the acceleration comes from behind, which suits the War Fronts because they are precocious and fast."

European racing seems to become more challenging for War Front runners once they turn 3. Looking at the performance records of War Front's black-type stakes winners that raced in Europe shows 58% of their collective wins came when they were 2, and 42% when they were 3 or older. The same breakdown among all War Front's black-type stakes winners shows 43% of all wins captured at 2 and 57% as 3-year-olds and up.

North American racing apparently suits the War Fronts that want to run on. Among 29 black-type stakes winners that won stakes in only the United States or Canada, 52% were racing at 5 or 6 compared to 17% among progeny that won a stakes in Europe.

War Front does not rank exceptionally high on leading sire lists in both North America and Europe, but that doesn't concern owners or breeders in the least. Claiborne intentionally limits the size of the sire's book to protect his value. War Front may currently rank 38th on North America's general leading sire list by earnings, but he's co-ranked in seventh with five graded stakes winners.

"It's just numbers," Youngs said about the rankings. "There is no question that War Front is good; he's very good." BH

DILGER: SARATOGA SALE 'A DIFFERENT BALLGAME'

By Ron Mitchell

When Gerry Dilger takes his Dromoland Farm consignment to New York for the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale, he emphasizes quality over quantity. If last year's results are any indication, there is something to be said for having a boutique group of horses in a boutique sale.

In 2015, Dromoland moved along all four horses it sent through the ring for total receipts of $1,395,000 at an average of $348,750.

"At one time I would have had more, but it's the way things are in the industry," Dilger said of the low number of offerings in his consignment last year, and for this year's sale Aug. 8-9.

But what the group lacks in quantity, it makes up for in quality.

"I have three very, very nice horses. I really like them. They are all well-balanced and good movers," the consignor said.

Dromoland's boutique consignment consists of Hip 46, a colt by last year's leading first crop sire Uncle Mo; Hip 85, a colt from the first crop of Shanghai Bobby; and Hip 243, a colt by Bodemeister, who is off to a fast start with his first foals racing this year.

Gerry Dilger brought three yearlings to the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale

Despite the downturns in key statistical categories at the F-T July sale, the first yearling auction of the year, Dilger believes Saratoga will be strong.

"This is a different ballgame," said Dilger, who had one of the more successful consignments at the recent Fasig-Tipton Kentucky July yearling sale with three sold for an average of nearly $125,000. "It's a boutique sale and everyone wants to come here. You have people from all over coming to the races and I think that is a big factor in the sale's success." BH

Recepta won the Noble Damsel in 2015 and was second her past two starts in grade I company

RECEPTA INJURED AT SARATOGA

By Teresa Genaro

Graded stakes winner Recepta suffered a career-ending pelvic injury Aug. 5 during training at Saratoga Race Course, the site of her game runner-up second by a nose last out in the July 23 Diana Stakes (gr. IT).

Trainer Jimmy Toner said the 5-year-old daughter of Speightstown was galloping on the main track when the exercise rider felt something off in her right hind leg. She was vanned off and transported to Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital for further examination, where it was determined she suffered a fractured pelvis.

Bred by John Phillips in partnership with Hank Snowden out of the Honor Grades mare Honor Bestowed, and campaigned by Phillips with Pam Gartin, Recepta won the Noble Damsel Stakes (gr. IIIT) at Belmont Park last September and was runner-up to Celestine there in the June 11 Longines Just a Game (gr. IT).

Toner said the next 30 days will be critical, as Recepta needs to remain standing until the fracture heals enough to enable her to move around. It's expected she'll then need six months of stall rest. If possible, that time would be spent at a nearby farm.

"It's just a freaky thing. She was happy and doing so good," Toner said. "I don't care about her coming back (to race). I just want her to be OK." BH

CAMELOT KITTEN GAME IN HALL OF FAME

By Myra Lewyn

Camelot Kitten edged a game Airoforce by the slimmest of margins in the $200,000 National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame Stakes (gr. IIT) for 3-year-old turf runners Aug. 5 at Saratoga Race Course.

Stalking from fourth while Airoforce chased pace-setter Giant Run through fractions of :25.08, :49.17, and 1:12.88 for six furlongs, Camelot Kitten moved up to challenge those two on the turn and the three entered the stretch as a team.

When Giant Run faded out in midstretch, Camelot Kitten and Airoforce edged past in tandem toward the finish line, but jockey Irad Ortiz Jr. coaxed a supreme effort from Camelot Kitten, who dug down on the outside of his rival in the closing stages to get the win by a flared nostril.

"He waits a little bit on horses, so we couldn't make the lead too early," Ortiz said. "I waited and eased him into the race little by little. The last part I hit a few times coming into the turn and he was ready. He was jumping."

Ken and Sarah Ramsey's multi-graded winner was cutting back in distance for the 1 1/16-mile race after finishing fourth last time out in the 1 1/4-mile Belmont Invitational Derby (gr. IT) July 7 on the Belmont Park inner turf. He was the victor in the May 7 American Turf Stakes (gr. IIT) at Churchill Downs. He has won three of his past four starts since adding blinkers.

"This horse has always shown a lot of talent but he just wasn't finishing off his races the way he should," Brown said. "Since we put the blinkers on, it's his fourth great race in a row. It was the final piece of the puzzle for this particular horse."

Strike Midnight got up to third in his graded stakes debut, three-quarters of a length behind Airoforce, the only other graded stakes winner in the field.

A runner for meet-leading trainer Chad Brown, Camelot Kitten covered the distance in 1:41.76 on firm turf.

Camelot Kitten paid $5.80, $3.50, and $2.40, Airoforce returned $4.30 and $3.10, and Strike Midnight paid $3.60 to show.

A Ramsey homebred by Kitten's Joy out of the Forestry mare Celestial Woods, Camelot Kitten is a full brother to Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (gr. IT) winner Bobby's Kitten. He improved to three wins from five starts this year while tallying his third graded win of the season. He followed his American Turf win with a neck triumph in the Pennine Ridge Stakes (gr. IIIT) June 4 at Belmont before finding the Belmont Derby trip a little too far. Overall, he has four wins and two seconds from eight starts. BH

FRANKEL'S BROOKLYN BOBBY HEADS LOADED FIELD

By Mary Reeder

Brooklyn Bobby certainly has the pedigree to set him up as the favorite in his debut Aug. 6, but there's a loaded field for him to contend with in Race 1 at Saratoga Race Course, an $83,000 maiden special weight.

Bred by Mrs. Jerry Amerman and running for Amerman Racing, Brooklyn Bobby is the first of sensational freshman sire Frankel's progeny to start in the U.S. The juvenile colt is out of grade I winner Balance (Thunder Gulch), a half sister to champion racemare Zenyatta.

Brooklyn Bobby posted a bullet work July 10 at Belmont Park before leaving for Saratoga, breezing the fastest five furlongs of 13 that day in 1:00.57 on the main track for trainer Brian Lynch.

Other contenders with plenty of pedigree are Blame Will, Giant Brownie, Golden Away, and Keep Quiet.

Willis D. Horton picked up Blame Will (Blame) for $600,000 at the 2015 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling sale. Bred by Samac in Kentucky, the D. Wayne Lukas-trained colt has run once, finishing fourth.

Blame Will's dam, Be My Prospect, has six winners from seven starters, including stakes winner Cat Burglar (Unbridled's Song). He is from the family of pensioned sire Belong To Me.

Giant Brownie, by Big Brown out of Elbow, is a half brother to grade II stakes winner and New York stallion D' Funnybone (D'Wildcat), who won the Hutcheson Stakes, Swale Stakes, and Woody Stephens Stakes (all grade II) as a 3-year-old in 2010.

Golden Away is making his first start for owner-trainer Jaime Mejia. By Giant's Causeway out of the stakes-winning mare Golden Antigua (Hansel), he is a full brother to two graded stakes winners—French group II winner Tableaux and Giant Gizmo, sire of recent Fleur de Lis Handicap (gr. French-bred Keep Quiet (Elusive City—Luminosity), a half brother to 2002 San Clemente (gr. II) winner Little Treasure (Night Shift), is making his third start for trainer Mark Casse and owner Gary Barber. BH

MONSTER BEA STEPS UP IN CLASS FOR LA JOLLA

By Jeremy Balan

For Gary Barber's Monster Bea, the light bulb may have turned on June 16 at Churchill Downs.

In the Hat Trick gelding's third try in conditional allowance company, he scored by 1 1/2 lengths on the Churchill turf, then shipped west—from the barn of Mark Casse to Peter Miller—to run in the Oceanside Stakes on opening day at Del Mar.

With Hall of Fame jockey Gary Stevens aboard for the third straight time, Monster Bea made the well-regarded group of 3-year-olds look over-matched.

Now he will take another step up into the graded ranks in the Aug. 6 La Jolla (gr. IIIT), but against many horses he defeated soundly in the Oceanside. Five challengers will return for another 1 1/16-mile test—second-place finisher Moonlight Drive, Dressed in Hermes (fourth), Mr. Roary (eighth), Imperious One (ninth), and Ebadan (10th).

Familiar faces Liam the Charmer and last-out allowance winner Lucky Bryan—third and fourth, respectively—behind Mr. Roary in the Rainbow Stakes June 18 at Santa Anita Park are also entered, along

GUAPAZA APPEARS POISED TO CAPTURE WAYA STAKES

By Evan Hammonds

Don Alberto Stable's Chilean import Guapaza appears to be the pace player who could take the well-balanced field of turf marathon fillies and mares a long way Aug. 6 at Saratoga Race Course in the Fasig-Tipton Waya Stakes (gr. IIIT).

The 12-furlong race, worth $200,000, goes one race prior to the Whitney Stakes (gr. I).

Chad Brown-trained Guapaza (Seeking the Dia—Guampa, by Dushyantor) has made four starts in the U.S. following a multiple grade II-winning campaign in her native Chile. Close in her first three races, including a third behind recent Diana Stakes (gr. IT) winner and stablemate Dacita in Belmont Park's New York Stakes (gr. IIT), she broke through July 10 in the 1 1/2-mile River Memories Stakes, topping fellow Waya runner Trophee by a half-length while on the pace.

Brown also has W.S. Farish and Steve Mooney's Ball Dancing, a grade I winner at 1 1/16 miles last spring at Keeneland. Untested at the trip state-side, she finished second at the distance in a 2014

MCCARRON WINS 2016 LAFFIT PINCAY JR. AWARD

By Blood-Horse Staff

Hall of Fame jockey Chris McCarron has been named the 2016 recipient of the Laffit Pincay Jr. Award and will receive the honor in ceremonies at Del Mar Aug. 21.

McCarron, 61, is the 13th winner of the Pincay Award, which is given to those who have served the sport "with integrity, extraordinary dedication, determination, and distinction." The honor and its trophy will be presented to McCarron by his fellow Hall of Fame rider Pincay, who rode against him for more than two decades in California and called him "as tough a competitor as there was.

"Chris was a warrior on the racetrack," Pincay said. "He was so smart and so competitive, and when you rode against him, you knew you had to be at your very best. He made me and all the other jockeys he rode against better riders.

"But away from the track he was, and still is, a special friend—someone you could count on every day of the week."

For the first time, the Pincay Award will be part of a special relationship with one of racing's most important charities—the Winners Foundation, which for more than 30 years has aided those in racing adversely affected by substance abuse and/or mental health issues.

Fans who wish may purchase tickets that offer lunch, an afternoon with Pincay and McCarron in Del Mar's Director's Room, and participation in the award ceremony. Tickets are limited and information can be obtained at the Winners' Foundation website.

As part of the day's activities, Pincay and McCarron will participate in an autograph session from noon to 1 p.m. around the large fountain inside the main gates, where they will be signing Laffit Pincay Jr. Award programs.

McCarron's riding career began on the east coast in 1974 and flourished in California starting in 1977. Though he has been retired since 2002, his career marks of 7,141 victories and $263,985,905 in purses still rank in the top 10 all-time among riders.

Among his many honors are a pair of Eclipse Awards (as an apprentice in 1974 and as the nation's outstanding rider in 1980); two Kentucky Derby (gr. I) wins and four other Triple Crown tallies; nine Breeders' Cup triumphs, including five in the Breeders' Cup Classic (gr. I); top jockey nationally by earnings four different years and by wins three times; the George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award and the Mike Venezia Memorial Award.

McCarron, who was inducted into racing's Hall of Fame in 1989, was co-founder of the Don MacBeth Memorial Jockey Fund, served as vice president and general manager of Santa Anita Park for two years, and founded the United States' only formal jockey school—the North American Racing Academy in Kentucky in 2005, a program in which he continues to teach and serve as a mentor.

Pincay, who at one point was the world's winningest rider, finished his storied career with 9,530 victories during 39 years in the saddle. He won five Eclipse Awards as the nation's outstanding rider and led the country in earnings seven times. Now 69, the native of Panama competed for 27 summers at Del Mar and is its all-time leading rider with 1,011 wins. BH

TRIPPI TOP SIRE IN SOUTH AFRICA

By Sarah Whitelaw

With the 2015-16 South African racing season ending July 31, a new sire has been crowned champion.

Drakenstein Stud's resident sire Trippi landed the title despite an epic duel the past few weeks with former champion sire Silvano. Following Sunday's Greyville meet, only 195,800 rand ($14,193) separated the top two sires' progeny earnings.

Although Silvano's son Marinaresco won the Mike and Carol Bass Champions Cup (SAF-I) on the year's closing card. Silvano could not catch Trippi, and the latter picked up his first general sire title.

A 19-year-old son of End Sweep, Trippi sired 11 stakes winners this season and picked up 16 black-type victories, including grade I-winning fillies Inara and Real Princess.

Captain Al, South Africa's 2-year-old sires list leader for an astonishing eight consecutive years, was the country's top sire by stakes winners.

Captain Al's 18 individual stakes winners for the season included grade I winning fillies Carry On Alice, Cloth of Cloud, and The Secret Is Out. He is also the broodmare sire of recent grade I winner Gunner.

Trippi is now South Africa's leading general sire of the 2015-16 season

More Than Ready's son Gimmethelight, who had a pair of graded winners, including Gunner, at Greyville July 31 was comfortably South Africa's leading first-crop sire by both prize money and winners.

Former champion sire Fort Wood picked up his second consecutive broodmare sire title. Daughters of Fort Wood were responsible for 12 individual stakes winners, including grade I winners Marinaresco, Noah From Goa, and Real Princess. BH

IMPROVEMENTS IN TOTE TRANSPARENCY

The idea should have been simple for Southern California's major racetracks: Post big winning tickets, including bet detail from wagers like the Pick 6.

Such a move would promote that horse-players can register life-changing wins, provide some education for new players interested in how such wagers are structured, and provide transparency.

When a California Horse Racing Board committee on pari-mutuel wagering began looking into the feasibility of posting such tickets last year, they discovered the task wouldn't be especially easy. In October the committee determined that only 60% of wagers would be available in a reasonable amount of time from the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau.

Consider that for a second. Until last year, about half the wagers coming into California tracks had no real-time monitoring, as 40% of wagers required a "time-consuming process of requesting those details from those outlets not providing them to the TRPB."

Improvements have been made, according to TRPB vice president of operations and wagering analysis Curtis Linnell. CHRB executive director Rick Baedeker would like to see more progress.

Linnell said a revised TRPB Tote Security System has come online this year. All TRA member tracks are participating—at varying levels—in the system that, among its features, aims to deliver individual bet transaction details from each guest association to a secure database.

Linnell said through TSS, bet transaction detail is available six or seven minutes after a race. He said Southern California tracks like Del Mar and Santa Anita Park have been two tracks largely up and running with the TSS. He said Santa Anita saw a percentage in the upper 90s of such information being available in near real time.

Baedeker said that after it took two days last year to get ticket detail on a single Pick 6 ticket at Santa Anita, California began considering as a requirement of licensing that tracks provide such winning ticket information on a timely basis.

Baedeker acknowledged improvements have been made but he's not sure it's to the level

Linnell described. He also said that beyond getting the information quickly, racing associations need to be faster disseminating it. He questioned the length of time it took to report a major pick six score July 24 at Del Mar. Baedeker also would like to see California tracks display the information prominently on their web sites.

"It's not as simple as getting the information, it doesn't do you any good if it's not posted properly. It's up to the mutuel departments to get to publicity then to the press. There's still some missing links," Baedeker said. "It took Del Mar a while to get the information (July 24). After they finally did, the media was gone and staff was gone. If it got posted on the web page, it was hard to find." BH

7f (dirt), $500,000, 3yo f, 5:02 PM (local)

Off the Tracks shortens up off a sharp grade I score in the Mother Goose and a good second behind Carina Mia. Lewis Bay had a troubled trip, second to top choice last out, could turn the tables with clean trip. Lightstream better suited to seven furlongs. Kareena obviously talented, gets tested for class.—L.S.
