CALVIN BOREL TO RETURN TO RACING

By Blood-Horse Staff

Jockey Calvin Borel sits atop Rachel Alexandra just before the 2009 Haskell Invitational

Hall of Fame jockey Calvin Borel, who retired from racing in March, said he would resume his riding career Aug. 27 at Ellis Park, it was announced Aug. 15.

"When you love something, it's hard to break (away)," Borel told the Ellis Park media team. "This is all I know how to do, and I love it. And I'm healthy. If I wasn't healthy, I could walk away. But I'm doing so good now. I'm not fighting my weight. I'm so happy."

l)-winning rider, recently returned from New York where he attended the Hall of Fame induction ceremony. His agent will be Frank Bernis, who also lines up mounts for Brian Hernandez Jr.

Borel said he wanted to get on some mounts before Kentucky Downs and Churchill Downs begin their September meets.

Borel retired suddenly March 30 at Oaklawn Park with little explanation, other than telling his former agent it was just time in a career that began in 1983 and included fracturing almost every bone in his body at one time or another. He returned to the Louisville area in early July, staying with trainer Buff Bradley and riding horses in the morning.

The decision to retire was apparently not so clear-cut. Borel said he was conflicted but had been getting some pressure from Lisa Borel to return to Central Florida where she lived and had show horses. While the jockey and Lisa were in a long-time relationship and she took his name, he said they never were married. Borel said he went to Florida but the relationship didn't work out.

He went to his native Louisiana to spend time with family, then came to Kentucky. In early July he said he hadn't discounted a return to riding but needed time to think about it.

Borel was famous for his relentless work ethic. Of retirement, Borel said: "I didn't like it. I took enough time off. It wasn't fun anymore. Some people quit because they're tired of it. I'm not tired of it. I was in New York for like two weeks, getting on some horses for 'Coach,' Wayne Lukas, and he said, 'You're not ready to retire.' I just want to come back and ride and see what happens."

Borel won riding titles at Ellis Park in 1995 and 2011 and was the 2010 recipient of the George Woolfe Memorial Jockey Award. He won the Derby aboard Street Sense (2007), Mine That Bird (2009) and Super Saver (2010).

He also was the rider of new Hall of Fame inductee Rachel Alexandra, the 2009 Horse of the Year upon whom he won the Kentucky Oaks (gr. I) by a record 20 1/4 lengths and then beat the boys in the BlackBerry Preakness Stakes (gr. I), the William Hill Haskell Invitational (gr. I), and against older horses in Saratoga's Woodward Stakes (gr. I).

Borel's 5,146 victories rank No. 27 all-time. BH

SALES UPDATE

THE FACTOR LEADS NY SALE BY AVERAGE

By Eric Mitchell

Freshman sire The Factor led the sire ranks by average at this weekend's Fasig-Tipton New York-bred preferred yearling sale at Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

The Factor at Lane's End

Lane's End's multiple grade I-winning son of War Front had three of six offered sell for an average of $213,333 and bring a median of $230,000. He was the only sire, represented by three or more sold, to have an average and median above $200,000.

Lane's End as agent sold The Factor's highest-priced yearling, a $290,000 colt out of the winning Sky Mesa mare Flash Act. The colt's second dam is grade I winner Missy's Mirage, who has produced stakes winner Apprehender. August Dawn Farm bought the colt, who was bred in New York by McMahon of Saratoga Thoroughbreds, and was the fourth-highest purchase at the sale.

Mike and Meg Levy's Bluewater Sales sold the other two The Factor yearlings. Patricia R. Schuler bought a filly out of Headstrong Beauty (Latent Heat) and bred by Hart Farm for $230,000. Bluewater also sold a colt out of Steel Shed (Theatrical) for $120,000 to Steve Perlick and Alan Herman. This colt was bred by Hidden Lake Farm and Dragon Squared.

One other freshman sire cracked the top 10 by average price. WinStar Farm's Gemologist was the sixth-leading sire, with a $120,000 average for three sold. His top seller was a $235,000 colt out of the unraced Stormy Atlantic mare Red Menace, who is a half sister to multiple New York stakes winner Saratoga Snacks.

Spendthrift Farm's Into Mischief ranked second overall with an average of $173,333 and a median of $175,000 for three sold. The top seller by the son of Harlan's Holiday sold for $225,000 to Midwest Thoroughbreds out of the Paramount Sales consignment. The filly out of stakes producer Tres Chaud (French Deputy) is out of the family of grade I winners Stella Madrid and Tis Juliet.

Ashford Stud's Uncle Mo ranked third by average at the New York sale, represented by seven sold for an average of $155,429 and a median of $110,000. His son, named Mo Diddley, out of the Vindication mare Miss Bodine, topped the sale with a $450,000 final bid from Everett Dobson's Cheyenne Stables. The sale-topper set a record for this sale, exceeding last year's record price of $350,000 for a Tiznow filly.

Lane's End's City Zip was right on the heels of Uncle Mo by both average price at $137,500 and by highest-priced yearling. His $375,000 colt out of Flaunted (Tale of the Cat) was bought by Linda Rice on behalf of client Sheila Rosenblum and out of the Indian Creek consignment. Rice trained City Zip to six graded stakes victories. BH

ALABAMA FINAL PREP 'PERFECT' FOR SONGBIRD

By Teresa Genaro

Undefeated champion filly Songbird put in her final breeze the morning of Aug. 15 for the $600,000 Alabama Stakes (gr. I) at Saratoga Race Course in a move characterized as "perfect" by Christina Jelm, who is overseeing the filly's preparations for trainer Jerry Hollendorfer.

Under regular exercise rider Edgar Rodriguez, Songbird was clocked for the half-mile work in :24.22 and :47.49, galloping out in 1:01.19.

"We just wanted to have a nice, easy, half-mile breeze and an easy gallop out," said Jelm. "Edgar did perfect, and she was smooth in her regular Songbird fashion. Edgar did exactly what Jerry wanted."

Jelm has been at Saratoga with Songbird since the 3-year-old daughter of Medaglia d'Oro, out of the graded stakes winning mare Ivanavinalot, won the Coaching Club American Oaks (gr. I) July 24.

"She's relaxed. She's just professional all the time," said Jelm. A Kentucky-based bloodstock agent that travels with Hollendorfer's horses outside of California, Jelm was at Saratoga with Hollendorfer's Sweet Lulu when that filly won the Test Stakes (gr. I) in 2013.

"She's everything you'd want in a horse," Jelm continued. "She has her fun and playful moments, but she knows when to have them."

Hollendorfer is expected to arrive in Saratoga from California within the next day or two. Songbird will school in the paddock during the race day on Thursday and Friday, walking tomorrow, jogging on Wednesday, and galloping into the Aug. 20 Alabama.

"Every afternoon we get her out and walk her," said Jelm, "so she gets some sunshine and she'll be able to graze a little bit every day."

Last week, a Ghostzapper half sister to the 2015 champion 2-year-old filly, consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency sold for $800,000, the fourth-highest price at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga select yearling sale. She was purchased by PTK, a Florida-based partnership led by Tom Haughey. BH

LIKELY TRAVERS CONTENDERS POST FINAL WORKS

By Blood-Horse Staff

Creator and Gun Runner breezed in company on the Saratoga main track on Aug. 14, working five furlongs in 1:00 3/5 ahead of possible starts in the $1.25 million Travers (gr. I).

Gun Runner, ridden by jockey Florent Geroux, and Creator, with exercise rider Abel Flores aboard, put in what trainer Steve Asmussen said were great efforts in advance of the Aug. 27 race.

"I thought they worked beautifully," said Asmussen, who was inducted into the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame on Friday. "I thought we got lucky with the racetrack today to stay on schedule, under good circumstances, to get done what we wanted, when we wanted."

Creator, the Belmont Stakes (gr. I) winner, is coming off a last-place finish in the Jim Dandy (gr. II) July 30. Gun Runner, the Risen Star and Louisiana Derby (both gr. II) winner, finished fifth in the Haskell Invitational (gr. I) July 31. Asmussen said both recent finishes for the 3-year-olds prompted him to work the duo together for the first time.

"It's the first time they worked in company, but off of disappointing races for both of them, I did not want to kid myself how they were doing," he said. "But I was very impressed with the work and they both seemed to come out of it in great shape."

Asmussen said he'll leave the next start for Gettysburg, who finished eighth as the pacesetter in the Belmont, in the hands of owners WinStar Farm. The Pioneer of the Nile colt breezed four furlongs in :50.94 on Sunday on the Oklahoma training track. Gettysburg has been nominated to the Travers.

"He's a talented horse and I thought it was a solid work," Asmussen said.

Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert confirmed this morning both American Freedom, second in the Haskell, and Arro-gate, who has beaten older horses in his three most recent starts, are being pointed to the Travers.

Owned by Gary and Mary West, American Freedom won the Iowa Derby (gr. III). A $500,000 yearling purchase, the Pulpit colt has three victories this year, including the LARC Sir Barton Stakes May 20 at Pimlico.

Juddmonte Farms' Arrogate, a $560,000 yearling, finished third after a slow start in his debut in April going six furlongs at Los Alamitos. He returned in June to break his maiden and win a first-level optional claimer at Santa Anita Park, and most recently was a front-running victor in a second-level optional claimer, all at 1 1/16 miles.

"Arrogate is in a position where he's had enough racing experience to take the big leap," said Baffert. "We feel confident that the 1 1/4 miles is a good distance for him. So far, I like what I've seen, so they are both coming."

Trainer Chad Brown reported that My Man Sam, who worked four furlongs in :48.93 Aug. 12, will join stablemates Connect and Gift Box in preparations for a start in the Travers.

"My Man Sam is now on target for the Travers," said Brown. "I'm not exactly sure when each will work again, but we'll watch the weather and come up with a plan to have all ready and in contention." BH

TARA'S TANGO SET TO RETURN IN RANCHO BERNARDO

By Myra Lewyn

Bob Baffert will bid to win the Rancho Bernardo Handicap (gr. III) for a third time, sending out Pretty N Cool and Enchanting Lady against grade I winner Tara's Tango Aug. 17 at Del Mar.

The 6 1/2-furlong Rancho Bernardo drew seven fillies and mares.

Trained by Jerry Hollendorfer, Tara's Tango captured the Santa Maria (gr. II) in February and Santa Margarita (gr. I) in March. The daughter of Unbridled's Song makes her first start in three months since finishing third in her subsequent outing in the Apple Blossom (gr. I) April 15 at Oaklawn Park.

Pretty N Cool and Enchanting Lady were the respective 1-2 finishers in the six-furlong C.E.R.F. Stakes July 20 at Del Mar.

Pretty N Cool, a 3-year-old Kentucky-bred daughter of Scat Daddy owned by Mike Pegram, Karl Watson, and Paul Weitman, won the first two starts of her career at Del Mar last year, including the Sorrento Stakes (gr. II) last August. Her 1 1/2-length victory in the C.E.R.F. Stakes marked a return from a six-month layoff.

Kaleem Shah's two-time stakes winner Enchanting Lady, a grade I-placed, 4-year-old daughter of Tale of the Cat, is aiming for her first graded win to end a four-race winless stretch dating back to February at Santa Anita Park. Two starts later she finished third in the Humana Distaff (gr. I) in May at Churchill Downs. BH

NTRA THOROUGHBRED POLL

By Blood-Horse Staff

Even with upcoming races Aug. 20 it doesn't seem that the top players on the NTRA Thoroughbred poll may be movable.

Frosted made the biggest move in the poll by magnitude of class with his consecutive grade I wins in the Mohegan Sun Metropolitan Handicap and the Whitney Stakes. He moved into second after the Whitney over champion Tepin, bumping the mare for the first time since she established her place in the voting at the end of March.

California Chrome, who has led the poll for all 24

California Chrome (outside) holds off a persistent Dortmund in the grade II San Diego Handicap weeks of voting in 2016, is set to run in the much-anticipated TVG Pacific Classic (gr. I) at Del Mar with champion racemare Beholder, second to Stellar Wind in her last race, and Dortmund, who gave him a run for his money in the San Diego Handicap (gr. II) last out.

Undefeated Songbird is expected for the grade I Alabama against 3-year-old fillies. BH

ARQANA PART I CLEARS AS SECOND-BEST

By Blood-Horse Staff

Part I of Arqana's August yearling sale was tracking as the second-best ever following the second day of the three-day session.

So far, figures have been headed only by last year's record-breaking performance.

After the second day at Deauville Aug. 15, 81% of the 172 yearlings led through the ring were sold, up from 76% in 2015. They returned €29,861,000 (US$ 33,316,200), a 7% slip from a year ago but still higher than any other previous Part I gross. The cumulated average is €213,293 ($237,973), down 13% from the record-breaking 2015 edition.

The Coolmore/Mayfair Speculators partnership was responsible for the two highest prices of the day, with Peter Doyle and M.V. Magnier doing the bidding. Both yearlings shared the distinction of being daughters of perennial champion sire Galileo, out of black-type winning mares from the draft of Ecurie des Monceaux.

First through the ring, Hip 97 out of the listed winner Prudenzia, hence a half sister to the classic heroine Chicquita, for which the Coolmore principals, standing alongside Peter Doyle, Derek Brugman, and Michael Jooste of Mayfair Speculators, went to €1.4 million ($1,561,990) to outbid Barry Weisbord and James Delahooke.

Two lots later, Hip 99, a daughter of the group III Prix de Royaumont winner Quetsche, attracted a closing bid of €650,000 ($725,212) from the same connections.

"There is always a good reason to buy these good fillies," said Doyle. "They are both outstanding fillies, individual-wise, two very nice Galileos with special pedigrees. They don't come by so often."

Hip 113, a daughter of Frankel out of the Dashing Blade mare Sasuela was the €600,000 ($669,426) pick of Japanese owner Kenji Ryotokuji, who was investing on the Deauville market for the first time via manager Takashi Iiyama. The winning Sasuela has already delivered three black type horses in group I winner Seismos and group I performers Soberania and Samba Brazil.

"We were very interested in her before we came here and when we saw her we were very impressed," said Iiyama. "She is quite small but I saw Frankel in Great Britain and she is similar in the body. She will go to Japan to be trained in Rito by Mr. Yoshimura."

The appetite for Frankel's progeny was consistent throughout the evening. Hip 104, a son of the great champion and the first foal out of group II-winning juvenile Restiadargent—who ran third to Black Caviar in the group I Diamond Jubilee Stakes—was knocked down to Pascal Bary for €520,000 ($580,169). The family traces back to the Prix de Diane (Fr-I, French Oaks) victress Resless Kara.

"We were underbidder to Shadwell yesterday on the Frankel filly (Hip 92) so we are delighted to be able to buy this one," said Taieb. "This colt has the conformation and the pedigree, and looks quite precocious as well. He will be trained by Pascal Bary."

The price was matched by Hip 154, a dark brown son of Le Havre who came into the ring with solid credentials as the brother to this year's unbeaten dual classic heroine La Cressonniere. Interest arose from all around the ring but Richard Brown prevailed at €520,000 before indicating that John Gosden would take delivery of the colt.

The final day of Part I continues Aug. 16 beginning at 5 p.m. local time BH

GONE WEST SIRE LINE STRONG IN EUROPE

By Clive Webb-Carter

The Gone West sire-line had a stellar weekend in Europe, led by his grandson Iffraaj (Zafonic) whose progeny scored a stakes double Aug. 14.

Ribchester posted his career-best performance and first group I win in the Prix du Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard Jacques Le Marois at Deauville on Sunday. In Great Britain, 4-year-old filly Mehronissa became her sire's 39th stakes winner, winning the listed six-furlong EBF Stallions Highfield Farm Flying Fillies Stakes at Pontefract.

The year has been particularly strong for Iffraaj. Not only did Ribchester win the Jersey Stakes (Eng-III) June 15 at Royal Ascot and place third in the QIPCO Two Thousand Guineas Stakes (Eng-I)—another 3-year-old, Nathra, scored in the Lanwades Stud Nell Gwyn Stakes (Eng-III) to be one of her sire's four European stakes winner this year.

Iffraaj's group I-winning son, Wootton Bassett, who was part of his sire's 2010 record-breaking 38 first-crop winners, also made a good start to his stud career. Almanzor won the Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby, Fr-I) becoming Wootton Bassett's first classic winner from his first crop.

The feature race Aug. 13 in Great Britain also fell to the Gone West line, when Richard Pankhurst by Raven's Pass, a Gone West grandson, won Newbury's Betfred Hungerford Stakes (Eng-II). It was Richard Pankhurst's his second stakes win over seven furlongs following the 2014 Chesham Stakes. BH

SHAMARDAL HITS 100TH BLACK-TYPE WINNER

By Myra Lewyn

Darley sire Shamardal joined an elite circle of stallions to reach the 100 black-type winners milestone when his daughter Gouache won the Preis von Berliner Schloss-Hoppegartener Stutenpreis Aug. 14 in Germany.

Shamardal is a 14-year-old Kentucky-bred son of Giant's Causeway out of the Machiavellian mare Helsinki, a full sister to grade/group I winner and deceased sire Street Cry. He stands in Ireland at Kildangan Stud where his 2016 fee was listed as private.

The stallion has 17 group I winners, including 2015 Hong Kong Horse of the Year and champion miler Able Friend and 2010 Australian champion 3-year-old filly Faint Perfume. With 1,265 foals in nine crops he has a respectable 8% foals-to-stakes winners strike rate. Overall, his progeny have earned more than $86.7 million.

Shamardal has 17 stakes winners in 2016, including group I winners Dariyan and Tryster, and Australian group II winner Bow Creek.

Shamardal, a two-time classic winner in France, took the 2005 Prix du Jockey Club (Fr-I, French Derby) and Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (Fr-I, French Two Thousand Guineas) as well as the St. James's Place Stakes (Eng-I) at Royal Ascot, all in succession.

Unbeaten at age 2, he won three races, including the Darley Dewhurst (Eng-I) and was named Europe's champion 2-year-old colt.

Gouache won the 1,800-meter (about 1 1/8-mile) event by three-quarters of a length in 1:53.30. She is trained by Jean-Pierre Carvalho for owner-breeder Stall Ullmann. The 4-year-old filly is out of the stakes-winning Dynaformer mare Guantana. The winner is a half sister to group II winner Guardini. BH

RACING COMMENTARY

with Bob Barry

ON THE IMPORTANCE OF WEATHERMEN

In the recent past, when graded stakes were still scattered across Saratoga's calendar like the bread crumbs marking Hansel's trail (the fairy tale character, not Woodman's dual-classic winning son), any old day at the Spa that wasn't a Tuesday was likely to provide some amazing racing.

If the quality of weekday racing at Saratoga is not what it once was, at least it's in good company. Yet even in this era of widespread and urgent longing for younger and presumably better-looking days gone by, when it comes to weekday racing at the Spa, recent eyewitness accounts confirm that from time to time there is still magic.

But with racing's headlong dash to a calendar of "Big Days" inevitably surrounded by lesser ones, taking your best chance on witnessing the improbable generally requires the freeing-up of your Saturdays. And with only seven of them punctuating the Saratoga season, it takes one excellent reason (or two very good ones) to keep this correspondent from crossing the Rip van Winkle Bridge and heading north on the Northway every Saturday.

This past Saturday overcompensated by providing one excellent reason to stay home (the threat of violent late-afternoon and early-evening thunderstorms) and two very good ones (daylong weather of the kind that prompted the invention of the "misery index" and the Million Day card at Arlington Park).

The decision to stay home was quickly validated when NYRA's paddock analyst Maggie Wolfendale tweeted, "On days like today we really have to thank and acknowledge the lead ponies, their riders, outriders, grooms, hot walkers, and the gate crew". Indeed. It was an awful day for anyone who had to work outside.

Further validation ensued when a storm unloaded over Saratoga, delaying the start of the fourth race and prompting a rash of scratches when three subsequent grass races were switched to the main track. When the fifth race revealed that even the sloppy dirt track was unfit to travel over, the balance of the race card was canceled.

Although Saratoga's long run of great weekend racing weather came crashing down on Saturday, at least NYRA was both savvy and fortunate enough to have the stakes portion of Arlington Million Day as a part of its new television venture.

If some of the results seemed familiar—Chad Brown has apparently developed a nasty "two a day" turf stakes habit—this viewer loved seeing Arlington Park taking one more close-up. I imagined the gently aging trainer declaring, "I'm still big, it's the racing that got smaller".

It's painful to think that the fate of Dick Duchossois' wonderful theater of the Thoroughbred is in the hands of those who have helped bring Illinois racing to its current sad state of affairs. At this late date, do they really need a weatherman to know which way the wind blows? BH
